Acclaim for this groundbreaking production, starring the world's greatest Wagnerian singers: "A triumph, at once subtle and spectacular, intimate and epic" (Telegraph). "Terfel's muscular singing crackled with intensity, incisive diction and gravelly power. Voigt invested energy, feeling and character in every phrase. Kaufmann ... his dark, textured and virile voice has ideal Germanic colorings for the music" (New York Times). "Morris ... musicality that makes you want to lean in and listen" (New York).
