

LEONARD BERNSTEIN

10 ALBUM CLASSICS

This special edition collects some of the conductor-composer's most celebrated interpretations and works: the still-astonishing album that launched Bernstein's international reputation as the most dynamic and charismatic conductor of his era, Stravinsky's Rite of Spring (1958); his Mahler 3 that launched the "Mahler Renaissance" in the 1960s; Bernstein the composer with the original Broadway cast recordings of Candide and West Side Story; Beethoven's "Eroica", Dvořák's "New World", Copland's Rodeo and Billy the Kid, Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue and American in Paris – all in all, the perfect introduction to the work of genius "Lenny".
