

Introduction .....	1
The road to Copenhagen .....	3

1949 to 1956

Dr Norman Begg: the first Regional Director .....	9
China to Homerton .....	10
Post-war world .....	10
Reconstruction .....	11
The Special Office years .....	11
From Special to Regional Office .....	11

1956 to 1966

Dr Paul van de Calseyde: the second Regional Director .....	17
The shock of the new .....	19
New health challenges .....	19
New programmes .....	20
New partnerships .....	20
New jobs in new hospitals .....	20
New approaches to communicable diseases and mental health .....	21

1966 to 1985

Dr Leo A. Kaprio: the third Regional Director .....	23
Planning for the future .....	25
Health planning .....	25
Long-term programmes .....	25
New global policy: Health for All .....	27
Regional strategy and targets .....	27

1985 to 2000

Dr Jo E. Asvall: the fourth Regional Director .....	31
Health for All .....	33
Implementing Health for All in Europe .....	33
Collaboration .....	33
International Conference on Health Promotion .....	34
EUROHEALTH .....	35
The WHO Regional Office and the former Yugoslavia .....	37
HEALTH21 .....	37

2000 to 2010

Dr Marc Danzon: the fifth Regional Director .....	39
Putting countries first .....	41
Country strategy .....	41
Health and the Stability Pact .....	41
Health security and humanitarian action .....	44
Health emergencies: a casebook .....	45
Health systems and public health programmes .....	49
Polio-free Europe .....	51
International partnerships .....	52
Inside the Regional Office .....	53
Evidence-based work and information for action .....	54
Epilogue .....	57
Information sources .....	58