CHAPTER 1: THE E-INTERVIEW RESEARCH FRAMEWORK	1
Interview Research: A Window Into the Lived Experience	1
Online Interview Research	2
Online Interviews and Multimethod Research	2
A Conceptual Framework for E-Interview Research	3
Aligning Purpose and Design	5
Choosing Online Data Collection Method for the Study	7
Taking a Position as a Researcher	8
Determining E-Interview or Observation Style(s)	9
Selecting ICT and Milieu	11
Using Visual Research in Online Interviews and Observations	11
Handling Sampling and Recruiting	12
Addressing Ethical Issues	12
Collecting the Data	13
Closing Thoughts	13
CHAPTER 2: ALIGNING PURPOSE AND DESIGN	14
Research: New Knowledge and Understandings	14
Understanding the “Research Interview”	16
What Is an In-Depth Research Interview?	16
Interviews in an Interview Society	18
Research Epistemologies, Methodologies, and Methods	19
Theories and Research Design	20
Epistemologies Influence Design Choices	21
Mixed Methods, Multimethods, and Mixed Epistemologies	23
Methodologies and Methods: Key Principles and Distinctions	24

Interviews and Observations in Qualitative and Mixed-Methods Studies 25

Closing Thoughts 31

The E-Interview Research Framework:

Creating a Coherent Design 31

Aligning Purpose and Design Across Qualitative Methodologies 34

Key Concepts 36

Discussions and Assignments 36

On the Web 36

CHAPTER 3: CHOOSING ONLINE DATA COLLECTION METHOD AND TAKING A POSITION AS A RESEARCHER 37

Choosing to Collect Data with ICTs Based on Medium,
Setting, or Phenomenon 39

Taking a Position as a Researcher 42

Insider (Emic) or Outsider (Etic) E-Research Positions 43

Rethinking Research Metaphors: Travelers, Gardeners, or Miners? 45

Positions, Power, and Symmetry in Interviews 46

Reflexivity and the Researcher's Position 47

Closing Thoughts 48

Researcher's Notebook 49

*The E-Interview Research Framework: Choosing
E-Interviews and Positions* 49

Stories of Online Inquiry 51

Key Concepts 53

Discussions and Assignments 53
