

CONTENTS

PREFACE	3
GUEST CONTRIBUTION	8
INTRODUCTION	11
PART 1 EU LAW PROTECTS AND PROMOTES EU VALUES	29
1 Fundamental values of the European Union: from principles to legal obligations	30
2 Fundamental values, constitutional identity and the protection of the European Union budget against breaches of the rule of law	54
3 The European Union as a worldwide promoter of the universality and indivisibility of human rights	72
PART 2 EU LAW PROVIDES RIGHTS TO EU CITIZENS	91
4 EU citizenship: in the service of EU citizens	92
5 Regulating data protection in a rapidly changing technological environment	111
6 From an economic community to a union for its citizens	129
PART 3 EU LAW IMPROVES THE LIVES OF EU CITIZENS	153
7 Protecting the environment and tackling climate change	154
8 Of farms, fish and forks	175
9 The removal of tax obstacles to living, working, investing, retiring and dying in another Member State	203

PART 4	EU LAW ENSURES FAIR COMPETITION IN THE EU INTERNAL MARKET	224
10	The benefits of European Union competition law enforcement for consumers	225
11	Remedies in State aid decisions: restoring the level playing field	247
12	The European Union Carbon Border Adjustment Mechanism and its consistency with World Trade Organization law	268
PART 5	THE COMMISSION AS CENTRAL ACTOR OF EU LAW	291
13	The infringement procedure: a key driver of the development of European Union law	292
14	The European Commission: the clock master of the European Union internal market	307
15	The European Commission's contribution to the quality of European Union legislation	331
16	The European Union judges' role in selected fields of European Union civil service law	355
	THE FUTURE OF EUROPEAN UNION LAW	377