

Table of Contents

The Thurn und Taxis family in the Czech Lands 3

A remarkable story of unusual fraternal togetherness 4

People called them THE BADGERS 5

The Fast Couriers 6

Citius – Longius – Altius 7

In the service of the Habsburgs 8

The great (marriage) strategist Maximilian 9

All across Europe 10

As the Imperial Postmaster General 12

The first Imperial Patent 14

The powerful and influential Aunt Margaret 16

Magnus parens Francesco Tasso 17

Elevation to the nobility 18

In a realm where the sun never sets 19

Monopoly of the Post 20

A double wedding in Vienna 23

Go, go, go, go, go, go, go, Postmaster 24

The modern age in motion 26

In the Lands of the Bohemian Crown 29

Disputes with the competition 29

Up the social ladder 30

Business is booming 32

Letters, letters and more letters 33

„Take a Seat“ 35

For fun! 37

Services „with a wave of the hand“ 37

The end of the Holy Roman Empire 38

„Das postalische Königgrätz“ 39

If only Emperor Maximilian and Francesco Tasso had known. 40

And what about the Taxis and „taxi“? 41

Books consulted 43

Please note

The beige-coloured text inserts are to show the events in their historical context.