

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Abbreviations	x

Part I

REREADING SCHLEIERMACHER

Chapter 1

INTRODUCTION

a. Schleiermacher's Critics	4
b. Complexity in Trinitarian Theologies	16
c. Chapter Overview	23
d. A Final Word	27

Chapter 2

SCHLEIERMACHER'S APPROACH

a. An Eternal Covenant between Christian Faith and Academic Inquiry	30
b. Antispeculative Doctrine	39
c. Different Conceptual Structures in the Doctrine of God	45
d. Anticipating Implications for Trinitarianism	48

Part II

SCHLEIERMACHER AND THE TRINITY

Chapter 3

REJECTING IMMANENT TRINITARIANISM

a. Schleiermacher's "Trinitarian Treatise"	56
b. An Antispeculative Objection	62
c. Conceptual Difficulties	69
d. Sabellianism Reconsidered	75

Chapter 4

CONSTRUCTING ESSENTIAL TRINITARIANISM

a. Three Distinctions-in-Relation	82
b. Personhood and the Divine Life	95
c. Toward Divine Personhood	104
d. Conclusion	114

Chapter 5

DEVELOPING ECONOMIC TRINITARIANISM	115
a. Methodological Divergences	115
b. Jesus of Nazareth	118
c. The Spirit in the Church	121
d. Preparation for the Union of the Divine Essence with Human Nature	124
e. Relating the Doctrines of the Immanent and Economic Trinity	130

Part III

TENSIONS AND CONNECTIONS

Chapter 6

DIVINE ALTERITY	137
a. Via Causalitatis	138
b. Apophatic (Verneinung) Attributes	139
c. Coherence of Alterity and Trinity	150

Chapter 7

CONSCIOUSNESS OF GOD	159
a. Distinguishing Christian God-Consciousness from General Religious Consciousness	160
b. Christomorphic Anthropology	167

Chapter 8

CONCLUSION	171
a. Apophasis and Kataphasis	175
b. Christian Ecumenism	179
c. Eco-Theology	182

Bibliography	185
--------------	-----

Index of Authors and Subjects	197
-------------------------------	-----