

CONTENTS

| | |
|----------------------------------|-----|
| Acknowledgements | v |
| List of Cases | xv |
| List of Rapporteurs | xxv |

General Report: Freedom of Speech and the Regulation of Fake News

| | |
|--|----|
| Oreste POLLICINO..... | 1 |
| 1. Introduction..... | 2 |
| 2. Freedom of Expression and Falsehood: A Comparative Perspective..... | 6 |
| 3. The Digital Free Marketplace of Ideas..... | 14 |
| 4. The Role of Online Platforms..... | 17 |
| 5. Disinformation, Public Interests and Democratic Values..... | 20 |
| 6. Comparative Approaches in Tackling Disinformation..... | 26 |
| 7. Conclusions..... | 36 |

Belgium

| | |
|---|----|
| Sarah LAMBRECHT and Elke CLOOTS..... | 39 |
| 1. Introduction..... | 40 |
| 2. Legal Framework: Disinformation and Freedom of Expression..... | 41 |
| 3. Authorities: Administrative Authorities and Courts..... | 51 |
| 4. Actors: Media Outlets and Internet Service Providers..... | 61 |
| 5. Disinformation and Elections..... | 67 |
| 6. Disinformation and the Pandemic..... | 68 |
| 7. Conclusion..... | 70 |

Canada

| | |
|--|----|
| Pierre TRUDEL..... | 73 |
| 1. Introduction..... | 73 |
| 2. The Constitutional Status of False Information in Light of the Guarantee of the Freedom of Expression..... | 74 |
| 3. Regulations Targeting the Quality of Information..... | 77 |
| 4. Responsibilities of Internet Intermediaries..... | 78 |

| | |
|--|----|
| 5. The Challenges of Misinformation..... | 80 |
| 6. The Regulatory Approaches Recommended to Limit the Risks of False Information..... | 82 |
| 7. Conclusion..... | 83 |

Croatia

| | |
|--|-----|
| Marissabell ŠKORIĆ and Dalida RITTOSSA | 85 |
| 1. Introduction | 86 |
| 2. The Constitutional Foundations of Freedom of Expression in Croatia | 87 |
| 3. Distinguishing between Statements of Fact and Opinions/Judgements | 92 |
| 4. Fake News: Limits of Freedom of Expression | 93 |
| 5. Rectification of False News or Information..... | 97 |
| 6. The Protection of Media Pluralism..... | 98 |
| 7. Media Literacy Campaigns | 100 |
| 8. Disinformation and Fake News in Scholars' Research | 101 |
| 9. Disentangling Disinformation: Public Authorities and Court Jurisprudence | 102 |
| 10. Media Outlets and Internet Service Providers: Seeking the Truth, Responsible Reporting and Fact-Checking..... | 104 |
| 11. Public Service Broadcasters..... | 115 |
| 12. Disinformation and Elections | 117 |
| 13. The COVID-19 Infodemic: Is it Time for Radical Change in Strategies to Counter Disinformation? | 123 |
| 14. Final Remarks | 126 |

European Union

| | |
|---|-----|
| Giuseppe B. ABBAMONTE and Paula GORI | 129 |
| 1. Introduction: The EU Path and Freedom of Expression..... | 130 |
| 2. The Definition of Disinformation, and its Legality | 135 |
| 3. The EU Policy Strategy to Tackle Disinformation: From Self-Regulation to Co-Regulation..... | 138 |
| 4. The Code of Practice on Disinformation: The First of its Kind | 145 |
| 5. Media Pluralism and Media Freedom | 148 |
| 6. Societal Resilience, Media and Information Literacy and Quality Journalism | 152 |
| 7. The Role of ERGA, the EEAS and EDMO within the EU Policy to Tackle Disinformation..... | 158 |
| 8. Integrity of Elections | 162 |
| 9. Disinformation and the COVID-19 Pandemic | 164 |

Finland

| | |
|--|-----|
| Riku NEUVONEN | 167 |
| 1. Introduction: The Freedom of Speech Doctrine in Finland | 168 |
| 2. Finnish Media Markets | 180 |
| 3. Freedom of Speech and Falsehood in Finland | 182 |
| 4. Self-Regulation of Media, and Media Literacy | 190 |
| 5. Fake News in Scholarship and Literacy | 193 |
| 6. Disinformation and Fact-Checking | 195 |
| 7. The EU Democracy Plan and Tackling Misinformation | 196 |

France

| | |
|---|-----|
| Pauline TÜRK | 199 |
| 1. Le cadre juridique français en matière de liberté d'expression et de désinformation | 202 |
| 2. Le rôle des autorités administratives et du juge en matière de désinformation | 220 |
| 3. Les acteurs du secteur de la communication : médias et fournisseurs de services internet | 224 |
| 4. La désinformation en matière électorale | 233 |
| 5. Désinformation en période de pandémie de COVID-19 | 236 |

Germany

| | |
|---|-----|
| Eva Ellen WAGNER | 239 |
| 1. Introduction: The Constitutional Foundations of the Freedom of Expression in Germany | 240 |
| 2. Distinguishing between Statements of Fact and Opinions/Judgements | 241 |
| 3. Dissemination of Falsehood within Specific Contexts | 243 |
| 4. The Protection of Media Pluralism | 249 |
| 5. Soft Law and Self-Regulation | 254 |
| 6. Media Literacy | 256 |
| 7. Fake News in Scholarship | 256 |
| 8. Fact-Checking Mechanisms | 258 |
| 9. Responsibility of Traditional Media Outlets | 259 |
| 10. Journalistic Due Diligence Obligations for Online Offerings with Journalistic and Editorial Content | 261 |
| 11. Liability of Internet Service Providers | 263 |
| 12. Disinformation and Elections | 268 |
| 13. Tackling Disinformation: A Delicate Task in a Liberal and Democratic Society | 271 |

Hungary

| | |
|--|-----|
| Gábor POLYÁK | 275 |
| 1. The Constitutional Foundations of Freedom of Expression in Hungary | 276 |
| 2. Distinguishing between Statements of Fact and Opinions/Judgements ... | 278 |
| 3. Policy and Academic Concepts against Spreading Disinformation | 282 |
| 4. Legal Framework for the Dissemination of Untrue Statements | 284 |
| 5. The Protection of Media Pluralism | 291 |
| 6. Soft Law and Self-Regulation | 300 |
| 7. Media Literacy and Fact-Checking | 302 |
| 8. Fake News in Scholarship | 303 |
| 9. Responsibility of the Players in the Media System | 306 |
| 10. Disinformation and Elections | 309 |
| 11. How should Lawmakers and Regulators Tackle Disinformation in Light of COVID-19? | 317 |

Italy

| | |
|--|-----|
| Michela MANETTI | 319 |
| 1. Constitutional Foundations of Freedom of Expression in Italy | 319 |
| 2. The Debate on Falsehoods | 322 |
| 3. Legal Provisions Banning Falsehoods | 323 |
| 4. Legal Obligation to Tell the Truth | 324 |
| 5. The Meaning of the Right to be Informed | 325 |
| 6. Applicability of Journalists' Duties on Dissemination of Information on the Internet | 327 |
| 7. Democracy and Truth | 329 |
| 8. Messages that can be Banned under the Italian Constitution | 332 |
| 9. The Problem of Pluralism on the Internet | 337 |
| 10. What are the Answers? | 340 |
| 11. Italy's Hesitation in Legislating Online Disinformation | 342 |
| 12. Initiatives of Independent Agencies | 344 |
| 13. Disinformation and Elections | 346 |
| 14. Disinformation and the Pandemic | 347 |

Japan

| | |
|---|-----|
| Eijiro MIZUTANI | 351 |
| 1. Introduction: Freedom of Expression in the Japanese Constitution | 351 |
| 2. Freedom of Expression and Falsehood in the Japanese Constitution | 356 |
| 3. Countermeasures against Disinformation in Japan | 357 |
| 4. The Dissemination of Falsehood and the Legal System | 373 |
| 5. Soft Law and Media Literacy Campaigns | 375 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 6. Arguments by Japanese Constitutional Law Scholarship | 376 |
| 7. Administration Authorities and Courts | 382 |
| 8. Media Outlets and ISP | 383 |
| 9. Election-Related Disinformation Regulations | 385 |
| 10. A 'Democracy Action Plan' in the European Union (EU) | 386 |
| 11. Disinformation and the COVID-19 Pandemic | 387 |

Macao SAR

| | |
|--|-----|
| Rostam J. NEUWIRTH and LI Yi | 389 |
| 1. Introduction | 389 |
| 2. The Information Revolution | 390 |
| 3. The Legal System of the Macao SAR | 393 |
| 4. Freedom of Expression | 397 |
| 5. Laws Regulating Disinformation | 399 |
| 6. Media Laws | 406 |
| 7. Media Pluralism | 409 |
| 8. Interim Assessment and Future Outlook | 413 |
| 9. Conclusion | 416 |

Romania

| | |
|--|-----|
| Elena LAZĂR and Nicolae-Dragoş COSTESCU | 419 |
| 1. Introduction | 420 |
| 2. Constitutional Foundations of Freedom of Expression and Other Legal Instruments in Romania: No Room for Protecting Falsehood | 421 |
| 3. Authorities: Administrative Authorities and Courts | 431 |
| 4. Main Actors in Combatting Fake News and Disinformation: Media Outlets and Internet Service Providers | 437 |
| 5. Disinformation and Elections | 446 |
| 6. Disinformation and the Pandemic | 451 |
| 7. Conclusion | 458 |

Türkiye

| | |
|--|-----|
| Erdem Ilker MUTLU and Onur URAZ | 459 |
| 1. Introduction | 460 |
| 2. Constitutional Foundations of Freedom of Expression in Türkiye and its Relationship with Disinformation | 461 |
| 3. General and Contextual Provisions Concerning Disinformation (Fake News) Regulations in the Turkish Legal System and Remedies | 465 |
| 4. Protecting Media Pluralism in the Turkish Legal System | 474 |
| 5. Soft Law and Self-Regulation Measures and Media Literacy Campaigns ... | 476 |

| | |
|---|-----|
| 6. Scholarly Works that Address the Issue of Disinformation in Türkiye | 478 |
| 7. Actions of Public Authorities and Organisations to Stop Fake News in Türkiye | 483 |
| 8. Responsibility of Media Outlets for Dissemination of Disinformation, Soft Law and Fact-Checking Mechanisms in Türkiye | 489 |
| 9. Legal Obligations and Ethical Codes of Information Operators (Journalists) and Service Providers as to Disinformation | 492 |
| 10. Disinformation (Fake News) Regulations and Elections in Türkiye | 495 |
| 11. Can the ‘Democracy Action Plan’ Ensure Electoral Integrity, Safeguard Media Pluralism and Prevent Disinformation? | 498 |
| 12. Disinformation and the COVID-19 Pandemic in Türkiye | 498 |
| 13. Final Remarks on ‘How to Legally Reserve the Society from Aggressive Disinformation’ | 499 |

United Kingdom

| | |
|--|-----|
| Peter COE | 503 |
| 1. Introduction: The Constitutional Foundations of Freedom of Expression in the UK | 504 |
| 2. Distinguishing between Statements of Fact and Opinions/Judgements | 506 |
| 3. The Draft Online Safety Bill | 507 |
| 4. Is it Illegal to Disseminate Falsehoods in the UK? | 511 |
| 5. Remedies | 520 |
| 6. The Protection of Media Pluralism | 523 |
| 7. Soft Law and Self-Regulation | 525 |
| 8. Media Literacy | 527 |
| 9. Fake News in Scholarship | 528 |
| 10. Fact-Checking | 530 |
| 11. Public Service Broadcasters | 531 |
| 12. The Responsibility of Traditional Media Outlets | 534 |
| 13. The UK’s Online Liability Scheme and its Application to Fake News | 535 |
| 14. Elections and Propaganda | 536 |
| 15. The Electoral Commission, Disinformation, and Elections | 538 |
| 16. How should Lawmakers and Regulators Tackle Disinformation in Light of COVID-19? | 538 |

United States

| | |
|--|-----|
| Leslie Gielow JACOBS | 541 |
| 1. Introduction: Regulation of Fake News and the Constitutional Foundations of Freedom of Expression in the United States | 542 |
| 2. Protection of Falsehoods | 547 |
| 3. The Distinction between Statements of Facts and Opinions | 550 |

| | | |
|----------------|--|-----|
| 4. | General Provisions to Prevent the Spread of Misinformation and the Influence of Other Countries' Laws on US Laws | 550 |
| 5. | Laws Restricting Dissemination of Falsehoods within Specific Contexts | 551 |
| 6. | Retraction Laws. | 556 |
| 7. | Promoting Availability of Diverse Speech. | 557 |
| 8. | Soft Law and Self-Regulation | 559 |
| 9. | Adding Media Literacy to the Student Education Curriculum | 560 |
| 10. | Research and Recommendations about the Spread of Misinformation . . . | 561 |
| 11. | Regulation of Traditional Media. | 561 |
| 12. | Fact-Checking | 563 |
| 13. | Public Service Broadcasters. | 564 |
| 14. | Regulation of Internet Service Providers. | 565 |
| 15. | Election Speech Regulations | 569 |
| 16. | COVID-19 Falsehoods. | 573 |
| 17. | Conclusion: Into the Future | 576 |
| | | |
| Vietnam | | |
| | Tat Dung DANG. | 577 |
| | | |
| 1. | The Constitutional Framework of Fake News Regulation in Vietnam | 577 |
| 2. | The Distinction between Statements of Facts and Opinions | 580 |
| 3. | Soft Law in Regulating Fake News in Vietnam. | 582 |
| 4. | Responsibility of Media and Internet Service Providers | 586 |
| 5. | Penalties and Remedies under Vietnamese Law | 587 |
| 6. | Conclusion. | 590 |
| | | |
| | Appendix: Questionnaire. | 593 |
| | Index. | 603 |