

Table of Contents

1	Organisation Theory and Action Research – Antagonism, Indifference, or Attraction? ( Anne Marie Berg and Olav Eikeland ) _____	7
2	Historical Transformations of the Private-Public Relationship, and Current Work Life Developments ( Olav Eikeland ) _____	23
3	Organizational rationalities and change management ( Anne Marie Berg ) _____	61
4	Breaking out of Leadership Research ( Fredrik Winther ) _____	87
5	Creating ethical space within organizations – An action research approach to ethical integration of organizations ( Lars Klemsdal and Helge Svare ) _____	117
6	Industrial action research in a hierarchic, bureaucratic organisation – a discussion of tacit organisation theory embedded in scientific practice ( Anne Inga Hilsen ) _____	143
7	Gender and Action Research ( Øystein Gullvåg Holter ) _____	167