

CONTENTS

	Introduction	1
PART I	GAY LABOR	33
CHAPTER 1	“The Homosexual Does Cope Fairly Successfully with the Straight World”: Defining Gay Labor at Midcentury	35
CHAPTER 2	“The Ones Who . . . Had Nothing to Lose”: Days and Nights in the Queer Work World	69
PART II	LAW AND LIBERATION	105
CHAPTER 3	“I Have Brought the Very Government . . . to Its Knees”: The Campaign to End the Ban on Federal Employment	107
CHAPTER 4	“Trouble” Followed “Revolutionary Action”: Lesbian and Gay Liberation and Work	144
PART III	CIVIL RIGHTS IN A NEOLIBERAL AGE	185
CHAPTER 5	“Discrimination Engendered an Epidemic All of Its Own”: The AIDS Crisis on the Job	187
CHAPTER 6	Making the “Business Case”: Gay Rights Inside the Post-Fordist Corporation	227
	Epilogue	264

Acknowledgments · 287

Index · 293