

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	viii
Notes on contributors	ix
1 Introduction: understanding North Korea Adrian Buzo	1
PART I
The political perspective	9
2 The evolution of the North Korean socio-political system, 1945–1994 Balázs Szalontai	11
3 Masters of survival: North Korean leadership in a hostile world Andrei Lankov	42
4 Political economy and ideology under Kim Jong Un Rüdiger Frank	56
PART II
The North Korean economy	75
5 The structural transformation of the North Korean economic planning system Peter Ward	77
6 Between the markets and the state: North Korea’s fragile agriculture and food supply Benjamin Katzeff Silberstein	97

7	North Korea's interaction with the global economy Justin Hastings	112
PART III
	Foreign relations	129
8	"The enemies made this possible": Sino-North Korean relations after 1948 Adam Cathcart and Yujin Lim	131
9	Nuclear weapons and North Korean foreign policy Shane Smith	141
10	North Korea's nuclear diplomacy Leszek Buszynski	155
11	Revival of an old friendship: contemporary North Korea-Russia relations Anthony V. Rinna	171
12	Once more with feeling: the US-DPRK dialogue, 1993–2020 Adrian Buzo	179
PART IV
	Society	197
13	Human rights and North Korea Sandra Fahy	199
14	The "market value" of people in North Korea Seokhyang Kim	215
15	Child mass mobilization in North Korea Miju Kim	225
16	The North Korean diaspora Sheena Chestnut Greitens	233
PART V
	Culture	249
17	The evolution of cultural policy and practice in North Korea, seen through the journal Chosŏn ŭmak [Korean Music] Keith Howard	251

Contents

18	Love of the lover, love of the Leader: youth romance in North Korean fiction	266
	Alek Sigley
19	Mass culture in the Kim Jong Un era: continuities and changes	283
	Tatiana Gabroussenko
	Index	295