

Contents

List of figures	x
Acknowledgments	xi
Notation and transcription	xiii
1 More than talking difference	1
Who's writing this book?	4
A word on terminology	5
2 Studying language	8
Important ideas about language	8
Questions linguists ask	16
Critical linguistics	17
3 What are gender and sexuality?: A short introduction to a very big topic	21
Feminist theory, politics, and societal power	28
Gender, sexuality, and sexual identity and Queer linguistics	29
Intersectionalities	30
Challenging gender binaries	31

-
- 4 How we got here: A brief history of the study of language, gender, and sexuality 35
- Lakoff's insights* 36
- The search for difference and dominance* 39
- An aside about identity* 40
- Other early work around the world* 41
- Gender patterns in language change* 42
- Disputing the causes of differences* 43
- Communities of practice* 46
- Performativity and indexing gender* 47
- Bringing in sexual identity and desire* 52
- Emerging trends: Translinguistics, embodiment, and affect* 53
- 5 Linguistic categorization and gender categories 58
- Gender in grammar: Is language sexist?* 61
- Gender and sexual identity categorization in interaction* 65
- Gender and figurative language* 68
- Categorization of normative sexuality and intimacy* 74
- Categorization of sexual violence* 75
- The politics of pronouns and binarity* 77
- Woman, man* 79
- 6 Interaction, identity, and performativity 84
- A brief outline of approaches to interactional (discourse) analysis* 84
- Turn-taking and interruption* 88
- Politeness and indirectness* 91
- Gendered address terms* 98
- Gossip* 102

	Generalizations about gender and interaction I	104
	Desire and flirting	106
	Homosociality and friendship	109
	Interaction and embodiment	113
	Family talk	115
	Generalizations about gender and interaction II	118
	Rape and consent	120
	Gender in new media	123
7	Linguistic norms as gender norms	131
	Linguistic variation and change: A short introduction	131
	'Canonical' gender patterns in the binary	133
	Explanations for gender patterns in variation	141
	Intersections, practice, and social meaning	150
	Meaning in variation	153
	Perceiving gender in speech	157
	Creating speaking stereotypes in mass media:
	Enregisterment	161
	Speaking your sexuality	162
	Trans variation	168
8	Putting it all together: Gender, sexuality, and language infuse life and society	175
	Index	183