

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
1 Introduction	3
2 What Can My Reflective Portfolio Be?	16
3 Finding Optimal Conditions to Write and Reflect	21
4 Getting Started: Learning as a Journey – Writing Prompts	23
5 Using Reflective Writing Prompts and Storytelling Skills to Maximize Growth and Reflection	28
6 Communication – Writing Prompts	36
7 Collaboration and Teamwork – Writing Prompts	39
8 Conflict – Writing Prompts	42
9 The Personal Narrative Reflection Tool: Steps for Enhancing Critical Reflection in Your Portfolio Entries	47
10 The Patient or Client as a Person – Writing Prompts	49
11 Diversity/Culture/Equity – Writing Prompts	57
12 Social Justice/Advocacy – Writing Prompts	61
13 From Portfolios to Action: Practical Strategies for Practicing Reflective, Narrative-Based Care	64
14 Well-Being and the Clinician as a Person – Writing Prompts	68
15 Ambiguity/Uncertainty – Writing Prompts	73
16 Career Satisfaction – Writing Prompts	75

17 Battling the Inner Critic: How to Stay Open When You Reflect and Write	78
18 Personal Reflections – Writing Prompts	80
19 Sample Course Guidelines	91
20 The Body – Writing Prompts	96
21 Things to Consider When Forming a Reflective Writing Group	100
22 Professionalism and Ethics – Writing Prompts	102
23 Values, Beliefs, and Assumptions – Writing Prompts	107
24 Toward a More In-Depth Assessment of Reflective Writing Evaluation	111
25 The Hidden Curriculum and Power – Writing Prompts	115
26 Am I a Good Group Member? Positive Characteristics	118
27 Dilemmas and Difficult Stories – Writing Prompts	121
28 Sample Discussion Points When Working with Stories	126
29 For Teachers and Student Group Leaders	129
30 A Sample Narrative Reflection Workshop Evaluation	133
31 Creativity – Writing Prompts	135
32 Graphic Medicine: Reflecting without Words	147
33 Getting Published: Common Themes That Predict Success	151
34 Guidelines for Narrative Accountability When Writing or Publishing about Patients/Clients	154
35 Finding Publishing Opportunities	157
36 A Few Words on Blogging and Social Media	167
37 Other Writing and Healing References	172