

Contents

1	The Case for Citizen Participation in the European Union: A Theoretical Perspective on EU Participatory Democracy	1
	Alberto Alemanno and James Organ
2	Citizen Participation and the Future of Europe: A View from Academia	13
	Alberto Alemanno
3	Citizen Participation and the Future of Europe: A View from Civil Society	25
	Anthony Zacharzewski
	PART I: PARTICIPATORY AND DIGITAL DEMOCRACY	41
4	Direct Citizen Participation in the EU Democratic System	43
	James Organ
5	WeMove Europe: Connecting Online and Offline Citizen Participation through the Stop Glyphosate ECI and Mini Publics	59
	Laura Sullivan, Paola Pierri and Xavier Dutoit
6	Crowdsourcing EU Legislation: Harnessing the Power of Digital Democracy	73
	Elisa Lironi
7	Regulatory Gaming: A Look into the European Union's Attempts to Engage Citizens with Playful Design	93
	Gianluca Sgueo

PART II: CITIZEN PARTICIPATION AND DELIBERATIVE DEMOCRACY	115
8 Bringing the Citizen Back into EU Democracy: What Can Deliberative Democracy Offer? Firat Cengiz	117
9 Reinforcing Citizens' Participation by Reforming European Commission Public Consultations Raphael Kies	133
10 The European Citizens' Assembly Graham Smith	145
PART III: CITIZEN PARTICIPATION, SOCIAL MOVEMENTS AND CIVIL SOCIETY	159
11 Social Movements and the Dilemma of EU Citizen Participation and Influence Louisa Parks	161
12 The National Filter of Europe-Wide Citizen Mobilization: The Stop TTIP Boomerang and the 'Empowering Dissensus' for European Integration Luis Bouza Garcia and Alvaro Oleart	173
13 Let Us Gain Control over the Future of Europe! The Case for Citizen-Driven EU Treaty Change Maarten de Groot	187
14 How Can Citizens Have More Influence over EU Law and Policy-Making? A View from European Civil Society Daniela Vancic and Sophie von Hatzfeldt	201
Conclusion: Next Steps for EU Democracy James Organ and Alberto Alemanno	219
Index	227