

Contents

List of Illustrations

xxiii

|  |    |
|--|----|
| Introduction: Feeling for Things, or What Really Matters                 | 1  |
| 1. What Matters in Theory  | 5  |
| a. Demystification   | 11 |
| b. The Experiential School (i): Philosophical Sources and Sentiments     | 16 |
| c. The Experiential School (ii): Feeling for Things in Theory            | 21 |
| d. The Experiential School (iii): Encountering Things/Displaying Objects | 26 |
| e. Realism: Art Works/Art Objects/Commodities                            | 31 |
| 2. (How) Art Matters in the Nineteenth Century                           | 35 |
| 3. A Note on Scope and Method  | 38 |

PART I. INTERESTING

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 1. Transfiguration   | 49  |
| 2. Desire and the Body of Inspiration  | 64  |
| 1. "To neutralize ordinary urgencies"  | 64  |
| 2. How the Painting was Finished: Representations of Old Masters and the Case of Raphael | 70  |
| 3. The Origin of Painting  | 85  |
| 4. The Promise of Happiness and the Death of an Old Master                               | 92  |
| 5. Hesiod or Orpheus   | 114 |
| 3. "Strange Aphrodite"   | 122 |

PART II. REMAINS

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 4. Matter, Form, Abstraction: Mediation and the Reception of Antiquities               | 145 |
| 1. Stone on Paper  | 145 |
| 2. Collection and Copy   | 152 |
| 3. Compendia: Image into Word  | 156 |
| 4. Blake   | 171 |
| 5. Mysterious Antiquity (Two Urns)   | 180 |
| 6. Nature in History: From Abstraction to Form   | 185 |
| 5. The Experience of Form (Bewilderment at the Vatican in George Eliot and Vernon Lee) | 203 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 6. Failure and Revision at the Vatican: Some Evidence from the Baedeker (an Interchapter) | 222 |
| 7. Ruin and Allegory in Benjamin   | 228 |

PART III. THINGS, PERSONALLY

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| 8. The Ruined Cathedral, Black Arts, and the Grave in Engraving: Ruskin and the Fatal Excess of Art | 249 |
| 1. The Ruined Cathedral   | 249 |
| 2. Black Arts   | 261 |
| 3. The Grave in Engraving   | 264 |
| 9. Pater at the Museum/Raphael's Fortune  | 275 |
| 1. The Nineteenth-Century Museum (Parnassus or the Dispute of the Sacrament)                        | 275 |
| 2. The Museum as Medium (Apollo or the Discobolus)  | 283 |
| 3. The Museum as Emblem (The Most Religious City in the World)                                      | 288 |
| 4. Raphael's Genius   | 291 |
| Endnotes   | 295 |
| Index  | 347 |