

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
List of illustrations	xi
Contributors	xiii
Introduction	1
Dawn Keetley and Ruth Heholt
Part One: Folk Horror's Folklore	23
1. The Frightening Folk
An Introduction to the Folkloresque in Horror	25
Jeffrey A. Tolbert
2. Whose Folk?
Community, Folklore, Landscape and the Case of the Lancashire Witches	43
Catherine Spooner
3. Folkloric Origins of the Ukrainian Gothic	59
Svitlana (Lana) Krys
4. 'Wow, this place is spooky at night!'
Suburban Ennui, Legend Quests and What Folk Horror Shares with Scooby-Doo	75
Ian Brodie
Part Two: Re-Visioning Canonical Folk Horror	93
5. The Curse of the Cursive
The Horror of the Hand in Folk Horror Film Typography	95
David Devanny

6.	The Devil His Due Folk Horror, Occulture and the Black Magic Story Timothy Jones	113
7.	Black Boxes Tradition and Human Sacrifice in American Folk Horror Bernice M. Murphy	127
	Part Three: Folk Horror in New Places	143
8.	Sunny Landscapes, Dark Visions E. F. Benson's Weird Domestic Folk Horror Ruth Heholt	145
9.	Monsters in the Making Phi Pop and Thai Folk Horror Katarzyna Ancuta	167
10.	Curses, Rites and Questionable Offerings Ludic Folk Horror in Video Games Tanya Krzywinska	185
	Part Four: Folk Horror's Politics	211
11.	Catholicism, Unification and Liminal Landscape in Italian Folk Horror Cinema Marco Malvestio	213
12.	'Me quitarán de quererte, Llorona, pero de olividarte nunca' La Llorona, Colonial Trauma and Mexicanness Valeria Villegas Lindvall	229
13.	Sacrifice Zones in Appalachian Folk Horror Dawn Keetley	245
	Select Bibliography	263
	Index	277