

Contents

- Introduction 5
- 1 The British Pioneers, 1952–61: The Independent Group and the American Dream 15
- 2 The Emergence of American Pop, 1952–62: De Kooning and Neo-Dada to Critical Reception 47
- 3 Roy Lichtenstein, 1961–72: Low Sources to High Art 83
- 4 Andy Warhol, 1961–8: Capitalism, Catholicism and Homosexuality 123
- 5 Progressive Pop, 1954–72: The Civil Rights Movement to the Vietnam War 157
- 6 Regional Pop, 1960–70: Chicago, Los Angeles and San Francisco 205
- 7 Erotic Pop, 1961–70: Gendered Perspectives 233
- 8 High British Pop, 1959–72: Blake and the Royal College Style to Later Hamilton and Paolozzi 263
- 9 Euro Pop, 1953–73: Situationism and Nouveau Réalisme to Capitalist Realism 299
- 10 The Decline of Pop in the 1970s and the Later Work of the British and American Pioneers 343
- 11 Neo-Pop in the US and Europe, 1977–90: The Pictures Group to the Social Activists 379
- & Conclusion 412
- Endnotes 415
- Biographies 423
- Key Dates 427
- Maps 430
- Glossary 431
- Bibliography 433
- Index 442