

CONTENTS

1 Education and learning	READING Good study habits p 4–5 Effective reading: (1): survey; skim; scan (2): intensive reading Education in the UK p 6 Effective reading: (3): increasing your reading speed; focusing your reading	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 7 Comparing and contrasting
2 Innovations in health and medicine	READING A musical cure p 12–13 Predicting content Topic sentences A new vaccine p 14 Avoiding plagiarism (1): rephrasing	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 15 Rephrasing Rules: the passive voice
3 Urban planning	READING A model of good urban planning p 20–21 Paragraph purpose: how understanding the purpose of a paragraph helps you understand a text Text cohesion: linking strategies between paragraphs A capital city p 22	RESEARCH Finding information p 23 Using reference material: using synonyms or more general words to find what you need Searching the Internet efficiently (1): choosing an appropriate site (2): planning your search
4 Water, food, and energy	READING Water, water, everywhere p 28–29 Finding information from more than one source Food chains p 30 Identifying language for rephrasing and giving examples: using discourse markers or signals to help you understand a text	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 31 Introductions and conclusions Rephrasing and giving examples
5 Free trade and fair trade	READING Globalization p 36–37 Distinguishing between facts, speculation, and reported opinions: expressing generalizations, caution, certainty and uncertainty, and reporting another person's opinion Is 'fair trade' fair? p 38 Identifying a point of view	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 39 Expressing certainty and uncertainty Expressing caution
6 Conserving the past	READING The Terracotta Army p 44–46 Dealing with longer texts (1): survey; question; read (2): recall; review	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 47–48 Indicating reason or result Rules: reason or result Adding information
7 Wonders of the modern world	READING Feats of engineering p 52–53 How to make reading easier (1): dealing with unknown words (2): dealing with complex sentences Islands in the sun p 54 How to make reading easier (3): understanding pronouns	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Word-building (1) p 55 Suffixes: how word endings change the part of speech and meaning of a word
8 Olympic business	READING The Olympic Games p 60–61 Making notes: different methods of recording what you read Two Olympic bids p 62	RESEARCH Crediting sources (2) p 63 Avoiding plagiarism (3): acknowledging direct and indirect quotations Avoiding plagiarism (4): punctuation of direct and indirect quotations
9 Trends	READING Work p 68–69 Understanding visual information: graphics Trends in education p 70 Interpreting data: looking for general patterns and then detail	LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 71–72 Language for describing graphs, charts, and statistics
10 Communication and technology	READING Communication technology p 76–78 Dealing with longer texts (3): predict, skim, and select Dealing with longer texts (4): read, make notes, check, and recall	LANGUAGE FOR SPEAKING p 79 Language for presentations

WRITING Education in Japan and England: a comparison p 8–9 Checking your writing (1): sentence length; word order and linking words; missing words Writing a comparing and contrasting essay	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Dictionary work p 10 Using a dictionary (1) (1) symbols and abbreviations (2) correct usage of new words	REVIEW p 11 Checking your writing (2): punctuation, spelling, and grammar
WRITING Keeping healthy p 16–17 Developing a paragraph: topic sentences; body sentences; final sentences Writing a paragraph	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Recording vocabulary p 18 Recording vocabulary (1) which words to record (2) what to record about a word (3) choosing a suitable method to record vocabulary	REVIEW p 19
WRITING An international trade fair p 24–25 Selecting information: identifying the purpose and key message of your writing Prioritizing: putting the information in order Brainstorming: before writing – writing notes, then organizing, selecting, and prioritizing your ideas Writing a persuasive article	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Collocations (1) p 26 Collocations (1): words that go together – adjective + noun; verb + noun	REVIEW p 27
WRITING Sources of energy p 32–33 Introductions Developing a thesis statement Conclusions Checking your writing (3): paragraph content Writing to describe and explain	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Compound nouns and adjectives p 34 Compound nouns Compound adjectives	REVIEW p 35
WRITING Examples of fair trade p 40 Supporting a point of view: the main point in a topic sentence, giving supporting arguments, and giving examples Consumerism p 40–41 Presenting arguments (1) Consistency: organizing your argument by topic or viewpoint (2) Staging: words and phrases for staging arguments Writing an opinion essay	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Multiple meanings p 42 Using a dictionary (3): words with more than one meaning, pronunciation, or part of speech	REVIEW p 43
WRITING Museums p 48–49 Checking your writing (4): looking at purpose, content, and organization of an essay Writing an evaluation essay	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Collocations (2) p 50 Collocations (2): Words that go together – verb + adverb; adverb + adjective	REVIEW p 51
RESEARCH Crediting sources (1) p 56 Avoiding plagiarism (2): Acknowledging sources	WRITING Tunnels and buildings p 57–58 Summarizing: identifying, organizing, and rewriting ideas Writing a summary	REVIEW p 59
LANGUAGE FOR WRITING p 56 Verbs for reporting another writer's ideas Rules: reporting verbs	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Synonyms and antonyms p 66 Synonyms and near synonyms: choosing different synonyms for different contexts Antonyms: choosing different antonyms for different contexts	REVIEW p 67
WRITING A permanent site for the Olympics p 65 Process writing: the stages of essay writing Writing a discursive essay	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Word-building (2) p 74 Prefixes: recognizing prefixes which carry meaning	REVIEW p 75 Composite words
WRITING Population trends p 72–73 Using graphs to present data Writing a report using visual information	VOCABULARY DEVELOPMENT Formal and informal vocabulary p 82 Formal and informal vocabulary: using formal and informal vocabulary appropriately	REVIEW p 83
WRITING FOR SPEAKING Interpreting and translating p 80–81 How to be a good presenter Preparing notes for a presentation Giving a presentation	WORD LIST p 84 PHONETICS SYMBOLS p 94	