

Contents

List of Illustrations	viii
General Editor's Preface	ix
Notes on Contributors	xi
Introduction Georges Mink and Laure Neumayer	1
Part I Mobilizations around Memory: New Actors, New Issues
1 Would-be Guardians of Memory: An Association of Camp Inmates of the 1992–95 Bosnian War under Ethnographic Scrutiny Cécile Jouhanneau	23
2 The Russian Orthodox Church and Reconciliation with the Soviet Past Kathy Rousselet	39
3 'You Still Live Far from the Motherland, but You Are Her Son, Her Daughter.' War Memory and Soviet Mental Space (1945–2011) Machteld Venken	54
4 Pilgrimages to the Edge of the Fallen Empire – An Anthropological Study of Finnish and Hungarian Pilgrimages to Second World War Memorials in Post-Soviet Russia Eva Fisli and Jocelyn Parot	68
5 Memory at the Margins: The Shoah in Ukraine (1991–2011) Sarah Fainberg	86

Part II Memory Policies and Historical Narratives: How Do States Deal with Memories of the Past?

- 6 The Elites' Games in the Field of Memory: Insights from Lithuania 105
Irmina Matonyte
- 7 The Chernobyl Nuclear Accident and Identity Strategies in Belarus 121
Tatiana Kasperski
- 8 Dealing with the Past in Central and Southern European Democracies: Comparing Spain and Poland 136
Filipa Raimundo
- 9 Institutions of National Memory in Post-Communist Europe: From Transitional Justice to Political Uses of Biographies (1989–2010) 155
Georges Mink

Part III International Norms and 'Geopolitics of Memory'

- 10 Memory Wars and Reconciliation in the Ukrainian–Polish Borderlands: Geopolitics of Memory from a Local Perspective 173
Tatiana Zhurzhenko
- 11 Memory of the Soviet Union and European Norms on Diversity as Rival Frameworks for Ethnic Boundary Making: A Case Study in Latvia's Russian-speaking Schools 193
Pascal Bonnard
- 12 Symbolic Policies versus European Reconciliation: The Hungarian 'Status Law' 209
Laure Neumayer
- 13 The Rejection of International Criminal Law in West Germany after the Second World War 226
Guillaume Mouralis

14	History as a Tool for Foreign Policy in the Baltic States after Independence Philippe Perchoc	242
	Conclusion Georges Mink and Laure Neumayer	257
	Index	261