Contents

Introduction 7

1 Short Stories and Tall Tales 10

Saki (H H Munro), The Open Window
R K Narayan, Under the Banyan Tree

Close Reading: analysing the plot
Language Practice: using different tenses in narrative
Vocabulary: describing types of stories
Beyond the Text: from Iris Murdoch, The Nice and the Good

2 Love in Vain 30

Katherine Mansfield, A Dill Pickle

Close Reading: interpreting characters' feelings
Language Practice: describing past habits and changes
Vocabulary: similes and metaphors
Beyond the Text: George and Ira Gershwin, They Can't Take That Away From Me

3 Childhood Memories 45

Frank O'Connor, First Confession

Close Reading: point of view and irony
Language Practice: direct and indirect speech
Vocabulary: adverbial phrases
Beyond the Text: from Charles Dickens, David Copperfield; James Joyce, A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man

4 Romance 62

Bernard Malamud, The First Seven Years

Close Reading: examining characterisation
Language Practice: speculating about future developments (conditional sentences type 2)
Vocabulary: describing people
Beyond the Text: Barry Cole, Reported Missing

5 Fairy Tales 80

Oscar Wilde, The Nightingale and the Rose

Close Reading: sequencing the events of a story
Language Practice: linking devices in narrative (conjunctions, relative pronouns and adverbs)
Vocabulary: describing personal qualities

Scott Fitzgerald, Outside the Cabinet-Maker's

Close Reading: interpreting characters' motivation
Language Practice: speculating about past events (conditional sentences type 3)
Vocabulary: reporting verbs; adverbs with direct speech
Beyond the Text: James Thurber, The Little Girl and the Wolf

6 Whodunnit? 101

Roald Dahl, Lamb to the Slaughter

Close Reading: interpreting characters' actions
Language Practice: explaining motivation
Vocabulary: feelings and reactions; parts of speech
Beyond the Text: from Arthur Conan Doyle, The Sign of Four

7 The Sporting Life 120

John Updike, Ace in the Hole

Close Reading: judging characters
Language Practice: criticising and complaining
Vocabulary: general and specific words
Beyond the Text: from Bernard Malamud, The Natural

Glossary 138
Key 146