

Contents

Special Issue: Theory and practice of Sustainable Development and Human Rights: Navigating Harmonious Interpretations and Creative Tensions Guest Editors: Elsabe Boshoff and Dinie Arief

Editorial

- Mapping the frontiers of sustainable development and human rights as a field of enquiry 3
Elsabe Boshoff and Dinie Arief

Articles

- The synergies between human rights and the rights of nature: An ecological dimension from the Latin American climate litigation 12
Elisa Fiorini Beckhauser
- Contested visions of sustainable development in conflicts over renewable energy, land, and human rights: A case study of Unión Hidalgo, Mexico 35
Lorena Schwab De La O and Peris Jones
- Synergies or silos? Exploring human rights considerations in sustainability reporting practices in the Nordics 71
Lorena Muñoz Carmona
- Reinterpreting human rights in the climate crisis: Moving beyond economic growth and (un)sustainable development to a future with degrowth 90
Judith Bueno de Mesquita

Lecture

- SIM Peter Baehr lecture 2023: Human rights and the International Court of Justice 116
Hilary Charlesworth