

Table of Contents

Notes from the General Editors

Roger Masterman and Aileen McHarg 189

Analysis

Public law and vulnerability

Maria O'Sullivan and Robert Thomas 191

Vulnerability in the social security system

Gráinne McKeever 194

The vulnerability of social security recipients in the age of automation—the role of public law

Maria O'Sullivan 203

The digitalisation of tribunals and vulnerability

Naomi Creutzfeldt 211

Special educational needs, vulnerability and access to education: a human rights test of failure?

Neville Harris 219

The gatekeeping function of vulnerability in public law and human rights

Luke D. Graham 228

Administrative justice and vulnerable people

Robert Thomas 235

Articles

Something Old, Something New: Personation, Photographic Voter Identification and the Elections Act 2022

Caroline Morris and Stuart Wilks-Heeg 243

The COVID-19 Care Home Discharge Policies: Public Authority Liability, Justiciability and the Common Law Duty of Care

Rob Heywood 270

Challenges to Legislation under the Human Rights Act

Christopher Rowe 293

What is an Act of Parliament?

Diggory Bailey 316

Internal Contradictions of “One Country, Two Systems” in Hong Kong Fan Xiang	335
Current Survey	358
Government and Politics Journals	383
Book Reviews	384