

Contents

Chapters

1	Introduction	1	6	Reproductive Health and Family Planning	37
	Putting People at the Centre	1		Family Planning and Sexual Health	39
	From Words to Action	3		Contraceptive Access and Use	39
	Countries Report on Progress	3		Unmet Need	40
	National Ownership and Culture	4		Choice of Methods	42
	Birth of a New Global Consensus	4		Sexually Transmitted Infections	43
	Wide-ranging Impact	6		Quality of Care	44
	Long Way to Go	7		Stronger Voices for Reproductive Health	46
	The Way Forward	9		Securing the Supplies	46
2	Population and Poverty	11		Men and Reproductive Health	48
	Millennium Development Goals	11	7	Maternal Health	51
	Reproductive Health and the MDGs	12		New Approaches	51
	Economic Impact of Population Dynamics	13		Causes and Consequences	53
	HIV/AIDS and Poverty	15		Maternal Morbidity	54
	Ageing Populations	15		Obstetric Fistula	54
	National Action to Reduce Poverty	15		Reducing Maternal Mortality and Morbidity	55
3	Population and the Environment	17		Difficulties in Measurement	55
	Population's Impact on Resource Use	18		Holistic Responses	55
	Poverty and Ecological Stress	19		Antenatal Care	56
	Gender Dimensions of Environmental Change	20		Skilled Attendance	56
4	Migration and Urbanization	23		Emergency Obstetric Care	57
	Urbanization and Relocation	23		Post-abortion Care	58
	Policy Developments since the ICPD	24		Quality of Maternal Health	59
	International Migration	25		Men and Maternal Health	60
	Policy Response	26		UNFPA and Safe Motherhood	60
5	Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment	29	8	Preventing HIV/AIDS	63
	Achievements	30		Impact and Response	64
	Global Survey Results	31		Linking HIV Prevention and Reproductive Health Programmes	65
	Legal Progress	32		Condoms	66
	The ICPD and the MDGs	33		Voluntary Counselling and Testing	68
	Challenges: Filling the Half-empty Glass	34		Key Challenges	68

