

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements vii

PART I

Planning your research 1

- 1 Introduction to Researching Language and Health 3
- 2 Getting started with research: Questions, data, methods 15
- 3 Ethics in health and language research 35

PART II

Investigating language and health 53

- 4 Agency, responsibility, and risk in public health communication 55
- 5 Literary representations of illness and public perceptions 81
- 6 Negotiating relationships and identities in spoken healthcare interactions 104
- 7 Digital technologies and health talk online 126
- 8 Digital health communication and the lived experience of illness 147

PART III

Learning from research in language and health: Case studies 169

9	Medical advertising and medicalization: A multimodal critical discourse analysis	171
10	Metaphors and Covid-19 in 2020	182
11	Vaccination narratives in response to hesitancy online	193
12	Authenticity and medical communication skills training	202
13	Storytelling and affiliation amongst healthcare professionals	213
	Index	225