Czech Guards Nab 2 Refugees in W Germany

STOCKHOLM (UPI)—Alexander was no ballet star or famous scientist, but rather a physics teacher who wanted out of the Soviet Union with a yearning so deep that he undertook a 2,500-mile journey to freedom. He walked, rowed, and hitchhiked his way across the Soviet Union, Finland, Norway, and Sweden for 26 days—braving risky border crossings and living off berries and wild mushrooms. He
