

Contents

CAREER SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE			LANGUAGE SKILLS				LANGUAGE KNOWLEDGE
It's my job	Patient care/ Signs and Symptoms	Project	Listening	Reading	Speaking	Writing	Language spot	Vocabulary	Pronunciation
1 Emergency medicine • p.4
John Rhys – cycle paramedic	Technical and non-technical words	Recruitment	Listening for detail Description of an emergency incident	Guidelines on continuing professional development	Eliciting information Signs and symptoms Describing a job	A job application	Rapid tense change Comparative and superlative adjectives and adverbs	Adverbs: describing how things happened
2 Accidents • p.12
Matthew Jenkins – radiologist			Understanding verb tenses Accident prevention measures	Accidents	Fracture types X-rays Minor injuries	Describing a fracture	Talking about the present Saying what's necessary politely but firmly	Fractures Causes of injury
3 Sports medicine • p.20
	Patient vocabulary Giving warnings and using persuasion		Spot the difference Patient attitude	Physical fitness and health	Open questions Head injury warning card	Head injury warning instructions	Types of questions	Verbs of movement Patient vocabulary	Main stress
4 Obstetrics • p.28
Mary Knox – NCT teacher	Lay words and medical terms		Taking details	Third stage of labour	Establishing rapport Giving advice Discussing topics in pregnancy	Supporting opinions	Giving advice and talking about expectation	Technical terms	Sentence nucleus
5 Psychiatry • p.36
	Psychiatric symptoms Interpretation of the patient	The Edinburgh Postnatal Depression Scale	Mental state examination Asking about abnormal perceptions	The changing face of depression	A patient with anxiety or elevated mood Assessing risk	Describing a chart	Phrasal verbs – separable and inseparable	Verbs with prepositions	Saying prepositions
6 Geriatrics • p.44
	Parkinson's and Alzheimer's	Finding information on Alzheimer's disease Health care and changing demographics	Picking up the thread of what is being said Active listening	Rehabilitation	Alzheimer's disease Hip replacement Debate: health-care budgets	A short essay	would, used to, get used to, be used to Purpose and reason	Special equipment

Reading bank • p.52

- 1 Triage
- 2 Preventing injuries
- 3 How dangerous is skiing?

- 4 Fathers and pregnancy
- 5 OCD
- 6 Nifty after fifty

- 7 Roman face cream
- 8 Training for surgeons
- 9 Powering pacemakers

- 10 Ethical issues
- 11 Coping in the tropics
- 12 Smart fabrics

7 Dermatology • p.66

Zahra El-Ashry – practice nurse	Understanding exactly what the patient says	Managing skin conditions	Listening for details Dealing with teenagers	Applied anatomy and physiology	Skin conditions Diagnosis and management of skin conditions	Reflection on personal experience	Commenting on the past Verbs with to and -ing	Lesions	Main stress in a sentence
---------------------------------	---	--------------------------	---	--------------------------------	--	-----------------------------------	--	---------	---------------------------

8 Surgery • p.74

	Putting yourself in the patient's shoes	Post-op pain management OSCE exams	Patient response Getting into conversations	Ovarian cysts: What are the symptoms, problems, and possible complications?	Explaining treatments An ovarian cyst	Describing a complicated operation	Relative pronouns in explanations	Medical terminology for surgery Technical vocabulary	Secondary stress
--	---	---------------------------------------	--	---	--	------------------------------------	-----------------------------------	---	------------------

9 Cardiology • p.82

	Talking to an anxious partner Competition Giving advice and coaxing	Cardiac risk factors Treatment for hypertension and cholesterol	A heart condition Advice about lifestyle changes	High blood pressure – hypertension	Taking a history Medication for hypertension	Difficulties in persuasion	The future	Avoidance of technical terms	Speaking at natural speed
--	---	--	---	------------------------------------	---	----------------------------	------------	------------------------------	---------------------------

10 Respiratory medicine • p.90

	Lung conditions	Inhalers	Signs and symptoms Mistake recognition Explaining a device	Flow–volume loop	Causes of breathlessness Explaining tests Describing a peak flow meter Explaining an inhaler	Describing data	The definite and indefinite article	Coughs Nature of the sputum
--	-----------------	----------	--	------------------	---	-----------------	-------------------------------------	--------------------------------	--

11 Tropical diseases • p.98

	Positioning and support of a stroke patient	Milestones in public health	Treating returning travellers Maintaining good health	Sickle-cell anaemia	Developments in public health Describing a disease Speaking in group work settings Patient cultural background	Describing a life cycle	Linking words	Travellers' diarrhoea
--	---	-----------------------------	--	---------------------	---	-------------------------	---------------	-----------------------	--

12 Technology • p.106

			Technological advances Trying to persuade the doctor	Stem cell transplant	Controversial developments Reluctant patients Stem cell therapy	Stem cell therapy	Negative questions	Change Evaluating change
--	--	--	---	----------------------	---	-------------------	--------------------	-----------------------------	--

Speaking activities • p.114

Grammar reference • p.118

Listening scripts • p.128

Glossary • p.138