

Contents

List of Figures	x
List of Maps	x
List of Tables	xi
List of Abbreviations	xiii
1. Introduction	1
2. York and the Regional Economy in the Later Middle Ages	39
3. Women and Work	82
4. Servants and Servanthood	158
5. Marriage in Town and Country	203
6. Moving to Town	280
7. Patterns of Cohesion and Residence	305
8. Women, Work, and Life Cycle: A Hypothesis Explored	324
Appendix I: Probate Evidence	362
Appendix II: The Poll Taxes of 1377, 1379, and 1380-1	368
Appendix III: List of Cause Papers Consulted	376
Bibliography:
Manuscript Sources	379
Printed Primary Sources	380
Secondary Works	385
Unpublished Theses and Papers	399
Index	401
4.1 Proportions of servant-keeping households and servant groups from the 1377 poll tax returns	161
4.2 Servant-keeping households and servant groups by parish from the York poll tax of 1377	164
4.3 Age distribution of female and male servants over time	170
4.4 Size and distribution of servant groups by households from York poll tax returns of 1377	181
4.5 Occupational analysis of servant-keeping by (1) servant groups and (2) servants	187