

Contents

- 9 Acknowledgements
11 Introduction
- 15 The Linguistic Turn in Philosophy, and Literary Scholarship: Speech Act Theory, Radical Translation, and Radical Interpretation as a Source of Inspiration for Neopragmatist Literary Studies
Vladimír Papoušek
- 85 Root Metaphor in and beyond Literary Criticism
Martin Kaplický
- 111 The Ironist Who Would Be a Poet's Helper: Richard Rorty's Neopragmatism and Dilemmas of a Literary Scholar
David Skalický
- 133 The Aesthetic Value of Works of Popular Culture from Richard Shusterman's Pragmatist Perspective
Petr A. Bílek
- 179 The Point of Literary Theory: The Meaning and Function of Literary Theory through a Neopragmatist Prism
Vladimír Papoušek
- 209 A (Neo)pragmatist View of Literary Interpretation and What Lies (or not) Beneath
Martin Kaplický
- 227 In Defence of Use: The Boundaries and Criteria of Interpretation of an Artistic Text
David Skalický
- 241 Appropriation of a Theoretical Concept as an Instance of Cultural Transfer
Petr A. Bílek
- 257 Post-analysts, Neopragmatists and Jacques Derrida: Initiations for Literary Theory
Vladimír Papoušek
- 285 Bibliography
293 Summary
297 Index
-