

Table of content

1	Intorduction	11
	1.1 Background	11
	1.2 Methodology, Sources and Scholarship	14
2	Approaching the topic	27
	2.1 The Development of Tibet in the Second Half of the 20 th Century and Conditions for the Emergence of Modern Tibetan Literature	27
	2.2 What is 'Modern Tibetan Literature'?
	Discussions and Definitions	40
	2.3 Who is the Literature for? On Questions of Readership in Tibet	45
3	Literature of 'Chinese Tibet' and 'Tibetan literature'	51
	3.1 Colonial and Nativist Literature: The Case of Tibet?	51
	3.2 Chinese Literature about Tibet	54
	3.2.1 General Characteristics	54
	3.2.2 'Chinese Tibet': Two Approaches (Feng Liang and Ma Lihua)	59
	3.2.3 'Across Tibet': Main Authors and Works of the Chinese 'Literature from Tibet'	65
	3.2.4 The 'Chinese Perspective' of Tibet	80
	3.3 The Emergence of Modern Tibetan-medium Literature	83
	3.3.1 General Characteristics	83
	3.3.2 Main Authors and Works	92
	3.3.3 The Main Themes of Modern Tibetophone Literature	112
	3.3.4 The 'Tibetan Voice': Implied Meanings of Tibetophone Modern Literature	128
	3.4 'Tibetan Literature' in Chinese	132
	3.4.1 General characteristics	132
	3.4.2 The Magical World: Main Authors and Works	136
	3.4.3 On the Edge of Time and Space: The 'Tibetan Perspective'	165
4	Modern Tibetan literature and the negotiation of a modern Tibetan identity	173
	4.1 Tibetan Identity and Tibetan Nationalism	173
	4.2 Imagining Tibet: Towards a Definition of 'Tibetanness'	181

4.2.1 Tradition and Modernity	187
4.2.2 History – Myth – Time	195
4.2.3 Religion – Mysticism – Death	203
4.2.4 Representation of Landscape	214
4.2.5 People, Customs, and Habits	231
4.3 Comparison of Chinese and Tibetan Representations of Tibet in the Literature of the 1980s	236
5 Conclusion: Modern Tibetan literature and the ‘National revival’ of the 1980s	246
6 Bibliography	250
6.1 Primary sources in Tibetan	250
6.2 Primary sources in Chinese	252
6.3 Translations	254
6.4 Western Languages Secondary Sources and References	255
6.5 Chinese Language Secondary Sources and References	266
6.6 Tibetan Language Secondary Sources and References	268
7 Glossary of Tibetan Names	269
8 Index	270