

Contents

List of Figures VII

Notes on Contributors VIII

PART 1

Introduction

- 1 Introducing the Book and Its Contributions 3
Martha Middlemiss Lé Mon and Anna-Sara Lind

PART 2

How to Gather Knowledge – Multidisciplinarity in Theory and Practice

- 2 Organising Across Disciplinary Boundaries – Experiences of Challenges and Success Factors 13
Anders Bäckström
- 3 Complex Accounts: Reflexions on Defining and Measuring Religious Belonging 32
Anne-Laure Zwilling
- 4 Layers of Misunderstandings? Considerations about the Benefits and Challenges of Writing an Interdisciplinary Article 47
Karin Borevi, Annette Leis-Peters and Anna-Sara Lind
- 5 Same Questions Different Answers: Experiences from Multidisciplinary Work in Law and Sociology of Religion 60
Victoria Enkvist and Per-Erik Nilsson

PART 3

Who Defines the Frames of Multidisciplinary Research? - Research Ethical Dilemmas and Expectations

- 6 Historical Perspectives for the Study of Religion 69
Riho Altnurme

- 7 Pros and Cons in Multidisciplinary Research on Religion 84
Margit Warburg
- 8 Observations on the International Character of Research: a Reflective Approach to Management 102
Peter Nynäs and Johnny Långstedt
- 9 Curiosity or Career and Finance Driven? Motivating Factors and Stumbling Blocks in the Pursuit of a Long Term and Multidisciplinary Educational and Research Agenda 123
Leon van den Broeke

PART 4

Traditional and Transformative Research Paradigms – Concluding Remarks

- 10 From Multidisciplinarity to Transdisciplinarity and Back Again... 149
Martha Middlemiss Lé Mon and Cecilia Nahnfeldt
- 11 Current Research Methodological Challenges and Opportunities Related to Public Mental Health Promotion and Existential Meaning- an Emerging Framework 162
Valerie DeMarinis
- 12 Religion and Diversity: Multidisciplinarity, Transdisciplinarity and Complex Futures 185
Lori G. Beaman
- Index 199