

Contents

List of figures xi

Acknowledgements xii

List of abbreviations xiii

1 Introduction: Engaged Buddhism 1

The origins of the term 'engaged Buddhism' 3

Engaged Buddhist movements 7

Scholarly studies of engaged Buddhism 10

Engaged Buddhism: Traditional or modern? 11

Models of engaged Buddhism 15

Engaged Buddhism in practice 16

A note on material used in this book 17

Discussion questions 18

Suggestions for further reading 18

2 The foundations of engaged Buddhism 21

Redefining the causes of 'suffering' (dukkha) 22

How engaged Buddhism adapts Buddhist ideas 24

Treading the sacred and profane paths: Lessening the tension between the 'mundane' and 'supramundane' realms of activity 24

Reimagining the causes of suffering 27

The adaptation of meditation and the precepts 28

Conclusion 32

Discussion questions 33

Suggestions for further reading 33

3 Beyond belief: The danger of attachment to views in engaged Buddhism 35

Daṇḍapāṇi the philosopher 35

The engaged Buddhist focus on non-attachment to views and opinions 36

- The fourteen precepts of engaged Buddhism 38
 - A certain point of view: What are views and opinions? 41
 - A Buddhist call to social activism: The Pāṭali-sutta 44
 - Buddhism with a small 'b' 46
 - Conclusion: Views and engaged Buddhism 48
 - Discussion questions 49
 - Suggestions for further reading 50
- 4 Dismantling metaphysics: Nirvāna, rebirth and interdependence 51
- Modern Buddhism 51
 - Nirvāna in this life 53
 - Engaged Buddhism and rebirth 57
 - Interdependence: A hybrid Buddhist doctrine 62
 - A scientific engaged Buddhism 66
 - Conclusion 68
 - Discussion questions 68
 - Suggestions for further reading 69
- 5 Left, right and the middle way: Engaged Buddhism and politics 71
- Max Weber and Buddhism 73
 - Buddhism and politics 74
 - How Buddhism interacts with politics 76
 - 'Dictatorial Dhammic Socialism' 80
 - The 'Two Wheels of the Dhamma' 82
 - The supreme Buddhist monarch 85
 - The tension between the 'worldly' and 'supramundane' realms of activity 87
 - Mindful politics 89
 - Conclusion 90
 - Discussion questions 91
 - Suggestions for further reading 91
- 6 Eco-engaged Buddhism 93
- The history of eco-engaged Buddhism 94
 - Themes in the study of eco-engaged Buddhism 96

- Eco-engaged Buddhist ideas 97
- Eco-engaged Buddhism and interdependence 98
- Themes in the study of Buddhist environmentalism 101
- The doctrine of Buddha-nature 101
- Thai tree ordination 102
- Tree ordination ceremonies 102
- Eco-engaged Buddhism 106
- Discussion questions 107
- Suggestions for further reading 107

- 7 Suffering, sexuality and gender 109
 - Buddhism and sexual desire 110
 - Female gender: Equality and discrimination 113
 - Gender and culture 115
 - Sakyadhita: Campaigning for gender equality 117
 - Homosexuality in Buddhist history: Karmic sexuality 117
 - Buddhism and (homo)sexuality: Liberal views 120
 - LGBTIAQ+ Buddhism: Philosophical themes of gender and sexuality 122
 - Suffering caused by heteronormativity in engaged Buddhism 125
 - Trans*-Buddhism 126
 - Types of gendered persons 127
 - Gender transformation in Buddhist history 129
 - LGBTIAQ+ mindful activism: Traditional karma and secular karma 131
 - LGBTIAQ+ Buddhists and loving-kindness 134
 - Buddhism and the #MeToo movement 135
 - Conclusion 138
 - Discussion questions 139
 - Suggestions for further reading 139

- 8 Ethnocentric engaged Buddhism 141
 - Buddhist identity 143
 - Buddhist identity in modern Myanmar 144
 - Ethnocentric engaged Buddhism 147
 - The ideas of ethnocentric engaged Buddhism 149
 - Ethnocentric engaged Buddhism: A summary 154
 - Discussion questions 155
 - Suggestions for further reading 155

- 9 Buddhism on the edge, Buddhists offended:
- Engaged Buddhism and blasphemy 157
 - Blasphemy and Buddhism? 159
 - Blasphemy, culture and identity 160
 - An analysis of 'Blasphemy' in the Pāli canon 162
 - The power of images of the Buddha in Myanmar and the Djing Buddha 165
 - The idea that blasphemy has no place in Buddhism 166
 - Conclusion 168
 - Discussion questions 170
 - Suggestions for further reading 170
- 10 Conclusion: All Buddhism is engaged? 171
- Discussion questions 174
 - Suggestions for further reading 174
- Notes 177
- Bibliography 195
- Index 222