

CONTENTS

No Neighbors' Lands: Living with Vanished (and Rarely Returning) Others in Post-1945 Europe Anna Wylegała and Sabine Rutar	1
Part I The Point of Departure: Experiencing the Catastrophe	27
The Prussian Spirit of the Land: Fighting Fascism and Legitimizing Annexation in Soviet Kaliningrad, 1947–1953 Nicole Eaton	29
“The Poles Are Taking Over All of Rabka”: A Microhistory of Ethnic Cleansing Karolina Panz	51
New Neighbors' Land: Istria and the Complexities of Solidarity Pamela Ballinger	75
Native Borderland Children in the Belgian-German and Polish-German Borderlands. Comparing Verification and Nationalisation Narratives After the Second World War Machteld Venken	101

Part II A New Brave World: Dysfunctionality, Justice, Reconstruction	127
Doctors, Craftsmen, and Landlords: How Vanishing Others Influenced the Galician Economy During and After the Second World War	129
Anna Wylegała
The Joy and Burden of Living: Roma Communities in the Western Borderlands of the Postwar Soviet Union	155
Volha Bartash
Among Neighbors and Relatives: Intercessions and Jewish Persecution Through the Lens of Bulgaria's Postwar Trials (1944–45)	179
Nadège Ragaru
Rape on Trial: Criminal Justice Actors in 1940s' Soviet Ukraine and Sexual Violence During the Holocaust	205
Marta Havryshko
Part III The Unbearable Lightness of Things: Property Issues	229
"The Alienation Lacks Any Legal Basis": The Fate of Jewish Property in Postwar Hungary	231
Borbála Klacsmann
A Conditional Restitution and Strategic Silences: The Shifting Political Value of Ethnic Germans in Communist Romania	255
Emanuela Grama
The Fate of Property in the Kočevje (Gottschee) Region during and after the Second World War	279
Mitja Ferenc

Property as Metaphor: Home and Belonging in Goran Vojnović's Film Piran – Pirano (Slovenia, 2010)	305
Sabine Rutar

Part IV Living with the Dead: Memory and Commemoration 331

"The Matter of Four Screws": Holocaust Commemorations in (Post-)Soviet Russia (the Case of Rostov-on-Don)	333
Irina Rebrova

New Settlers as Implicated Subjects: Case Study of Collective Amnesia in Czech Silesia	359
Johana Wyss

We, the Perpetrators: Remembering Violence Committed by One's Own Group in the Polish-Ukrainian Conflicts	383
Małgorzata Łukianow

Post-1945 No Neighbors' Lands: A Conclusion	407
Sabine Rutar and Anna Wylegała

Correction to: No Neighbors' Lands in Postwar Europe	C1
Anna Wylegała, Sabine Rutar and Małgorzata Łukianow

Index	413
--------------	------------