

Contents

	Preface	ix
	Introduction	1
	Part 1 – Alberti's House-City	19
1	A Contested Legacy	21
2	The City as a Big House	30
3	The House as a Little City	37
4	Alberti's 'Method': compartition and concinnitas	50
	Part 2 – Building Blocks: from house to city	59
5	House: from villa to ville	61
6	Ground: natural, historical and social	91
7	Individual Spaces: from rooms to buildings	125
8	Connecting Spaces: from corridors to streets	144
9	Collective Spaces: from living room to piazza	171

Part 3 – Designing Buildings as Little Cities

191

10 Little Cities for Dwelling 193

11 Little Cities for Work and Interaction 211

12 Little Cities for Mind and Body 233

Conclusions – House-City as Ecosystem 261

Reflections 271

Niels Torp 271

Bob Allies 272

Richard Hassell 273

Acknowledgements 275

Bibliography 277

Notes 283

Credits 291

Index 299