

Contents

Preface to the Third Edition	x
Acknowledgements	xii
Chapter 1 The Nature and Process of Academic Writing	1
1.1 Why is writing so important?	2
1.2 The nature of academic writing	4
1.3 The process of writing	10
1.4 Playing to your strengths and preferences	19
1.5 Managing your health and wellbeing	19
1.6 Using technology to help you	20
1.7 In conclusion: the process of academic writing	21
Chapter 2 Understanding the Nature of an Assignment	24
2.1 The IPACE model	24
2.2 Putting IPACE into practice	33
Chapter 3 Tackling Assignments: Writing Essays and Reports	36
3.1 Questions to ask your assessor	36
3.2 Interpreting the nature of the task	37
3.3 A typical structure for a written assignment	38
3.4 Essays	41
3.5 Practical reports	45
3.6 Business-style report writing	49
3.7 Critical reflective writing	54
Chapter 4 More Assignments: Presentations, Posters, Blogs and Dissertations	62
4.1 Presentations	62
4.2 Posters	68
4.3 Blogs	69
4.4 Dissertations	71
4.5 Planning: from large- to small-scale	74
4.6 Handling large digital documents	77

Chapter 5 Researching an Assignment 80

- 5.1 Being strategic 80
- 5.2 Different strategies for different assignments 81
- 5.3 Being selective (using RABT) 85
- 5.4 Becoming more discerning 93
- 5.5 Using bibliographic databases 93

Chapter 6 Being a Purposeful Reader and Note-taker 100

- 6.1 Kinds of reading 100
- 6.2 Beginning with the end in mind 102
- 6.3 Surveying (scanning and skimming) 103
- 6.4 Establishing a purpose 105
- 6.5 Deciding on a reading strategy 107
- 6.6 In-depth reading (using SP3R) 108
- 6.7 Annotating and note-taking 109

Chapter 7 Composing (Drafting) 115

- 7.1 Balancing the critical and the creative 115
- 7.2 Composing your first draft 116
- 7.3 Writing to a prompt 118
- 7.4 Freewriting 119
- 7.5 The 'no composing' approach 121
- 7.6 Managing your composing 122
- 7.7 Twelve ways to overcome writer's block 124

Chapter 8 Words and Images 128

- 8.1 The role of visual elements 128
- 8.2 Content and design 128
- 8.3 Using tables 129
- 8.4 Using graphs and charts 131
- 8.5 Other kinds of figure 136
- 8.6 Software for creating tables and figures 136

Chapter 9 Academic Integrity, including Citing and Referencing 142

- 9.1 Citing and referencing 142
- 9.2 Academic integrity 143
- 9.3 Styles of citing and referencing 144
- 9.4 Using citations and quotations 147
- 9.5 Plagiarism 154
- 9.6 Avoiding plagiarism 157

Chapter 10 Reviewing and Editing Your Work 162

- 10.1 Fulfilling the brief 163
- 10.2 Structure and argument 164
- 10.3 Paragraphs 165
- 10.4 Sentences 168
- 10.5 Grammar 172
- 10.6 Punctuation 174
- 10.7 Spelling 177
- 10.8 Presentation 178
- 10.9 Using your word processor's functions (but critically) 178

Chapter 11 Building on Success 185

- 11.1 Cycles of learning 185
- 11.2 Making the most of feedback 187
- 11.3 Where to get help 191
- 11.4 Be inspired by what you read 191
- 11.5 Narratives and protagonists 193
- 11.6 Final word 195

- Glossary 197
- Cited References and Further Reading 202
- Index 208