

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
About the Authors	xi
How to Use This Book	xiii
Introduction: What It Means to Actively Engage the Whole Mind	1
Develop Independence of Mind	3
Create Trusting Relationships	12
Choose Teaching Methods	14
1 Instructional Structures	17
Do Nows	18
Unit Goals	21
Essential Questions	26
Shared Experiences	30
Workshops	33
Strategy Groups	39
Stations	43
Simulations	49
Flipped Classrooms	53
2 Teaching Moves	57
Modeling	58
Guided Practice	62
Coaching	66
3 Learning Tools	71
Multimodal Learning	73
Graphic Organizers	78
Thinking Routines	85
Memorization	90
Reflection	95

4	Collaboration Structures	99
	Discussion Stems	101
	Think-Pair-Share	105
	Lines of Positionality	109
	Fishbowls	114
	Jigsaw	117
	Silent Conversations	122
	Share-Outs	126
5	Reading Routines	131
	Close Reading	133
	Identifying Central Ideas	137
	Using the Elements of Nonfiction	142
	Independent Reading	147
	Reading Clubs	151
	Learning New Vocabulary	157
6	Writing Routines	165
	Planning for Writing	166
	Considering Audience	172
	Studying Mentor Texts	177
	Developing Central Ideas for Essays	183
7	Assessment Opportunities	187
	Formative Assessment	188
	Feedback	193
	Conferring	198
	Learning Progressions	203
	Portfolios	208
	Performance Assessments	212
	Conclusion: Teaching From Your Beliefs	217
	Appendices	219
	References	229
	Index	233

For downloadable resources related to Active Learning, visit the companion website at
resources.corwin.com/activelearning.