

CONTENTS OF THIS HANDBOOK

	Page
I. STRESS VALUE TO THE CUSTOMER.....	3

Why the Customer hesitates—Capitalise Hesitation—Keep on Selling—What Value means to the Customer—How to Show Value to the Customer—Select your Facts with Judgment—Say Enough ; but not too Much—Speak the Customer's Language—Talk Value in a way that Helps the Sale—Justify Price by Value—Be Prepared to Discuss Price when Necessary—Discuss Price Constructively—When the Customer insists on a Lower-Priced Article.

II. EXPLAINING MATERIALS AND THEIR MANUFACTURE.....	24
---	----

Why Thorough Knowledge of Your Lines is Important—Gathering Knowledge about your Goods—How to Show the Value of Materials—How Construction and Make-up provide Evidence of Value—Build up an Appreciation of Value by your Explanation—Keep your Customer's Interest—Make Your Statements Direct and Specific—Know When to Stop.

III. DEMONSTRATING YOUR GOODS.....	39
------------------------------------	----

Why Effective Demonstration is Essential—Make Demonstration and Explanation March in Step—Action Vitalises Explanation—Show how the Article will appear in Use—Explain Use and Operation from the Customer's Viewpoint—Stress Ease of Operation, where Appropriate—Show the Customer how to look after the Purchase—Make Sure the Customer Understands.

IV. BUILDING UP THE CUSTOMER'S CONFIDENCE.....	53
--	----

Interpret to the Customer the Policies of your Firm—How to Promote Confidence in your Firm—Emphasize the Selling Policy of your Firm—Show what the Size and Age of your Business means to the Customer—Capitalise the Value of Expert Buying—Assure the Customer of a Square Deal—Make the Most of Service after Purchase—Capitalise the Manufacturer's Reputation—The Proper Use of the "Buy British" Appeal—Swing Back to the Customer's Own Problem.

V. CLOSING THE NORMAL SALE.....	67
---------------------------------	----

The Evil of "High-Pressure" Selling—Make it Easy for the Customer to Buy—Watch for Closing Signals—Adapt your Closing Methods to the Situation—The Minor Point Close—The Selection Close—The Recommendation Close—The Ownership Close—The Direct Close—Closing on Hire-Purchase or Credit Facilities—Vary your Closing Attempts.

F 46 299

