

Table of contents

List of figures	VII
Introduction: Photography in children's literature Elina Druker & Bettina Kümmerling-Meibauer	1
PART 1. Early photobooks
CHAPTER 1. Translating living pictures: Ein Tag aus dem Kinderleben and the tableau vivant tradition in Sweden and Finland Olle Widhe	22
CHAPTER 2. Photographing Chinese childhood: Writing and picturing (1873–1903) Jessica Medhurst	43
CHAPTER 3. As 'objectively' as possible . On truth and objectivity in photographic early-concept books: The case of The First Picture Book and The Second Picture Book by Mary Steichen and Edward Steichen Jörg Meibauer	67
PART 2. The impact of vanguard movements
CHAPTER 4. Soviet socialist su(pe)rrealism for children Aleksandar Bošković & Ainsley Morse	94
CHAPTER 5. From Halley's Comet to the Scout Kwapiszon: On photomontage, photocollage, and collage in Polish children's books in the twentieth century Anita Wincencjusz-Patyna	123
CHAPTER 6. "A successful photograph is worth as much as a story": Photography's influence on Bruno Munari's books Marnie Campagnaro	144
PART 3. Female pioneers of photography
CHAPTER 7. From the "Children of all Lands Stories" to the "Enfants du monde" collection: Providing a view of the Other in children's literature Laurence Le Guen	170

CHAPTER 8. In and out of focus: Anna Riwkin's photojournalism and photographic picturebooks Elina Druker	189
CHAPTER 9. Politics, art, and pedagogy in Edith Tudor-Hart's photographs of children Kimberley Reynolds	210
 PART 4. The politics of childhood
CHAPTER 10. Portrait of the child as a socialist: Three photographic picturebooks from the German Democratic Republic Bettina Kümmerling-Meibauer & Jörg Meibauer	232
CHAPTER 11. "Days of Sun, Playing and Dreams": Innocence, loss, and nostalgia in photography books of children in the kibbutz Ayala Amir	254
CHAPTER 12. The mirror and multiplicity: Photographic books for the young during the United States' Black Arts movement of the 1970s Katharine Capshaw	274
About the editors and contributors	297
Subject index	301
Name index	305