

Contents

List of contributors viii

Introduction 1

PART I

The role of the European Court of Human Rights and the European Union in relation to the treatment of same-sex couples' relationships 9

1 The potential of European Union law to further advance LGBTQ+ persons and same-sex couples' rights 11
FRANCES HAMILTON

2 The European approach to recognising, downgrading, and erasing same-sex marriages celebrated abroad 33
GUIDO NOTO LA DIEGA

3 Harmonisation of choice of law rules on same-sex marriage: an international perspective 51
LAUREN CLAYTON-HELM

PART 2

Differing paths towards legalisation of same-sex marriage 69

4 Marriage equality in Ireland: the politico-legal context 71
BRIAN TOBIN

5	The aftermath of marriage equality in Australia: religious freedom and LGBTQ+ non-discrimination	91
	LOUISE RICHARDSON-SELF, BRONWYN FIELDER, AND DOUGLAS EZZY
6	The role of constitutional courts in promoting marriage equality and their relationships with movements and legislators	109
	ANGIOLETTA SPERTI
PART 3
Rainbow families		125
7	The European Court of Human Rights and the notion of family life: a common European standard for the EU framework	127
	ALEXANDER SCHUSTER
8	EU law and the rights of rainbow families to move freely between EU Member States	150
	ALINA TRYFONIDOU
9	Same-sex relationships and the child law perspectives: another child protection concern, or simply a new way of creating the modern family?	168
	FRANCES BURTON
PART 4
The importance of civil partnership in an era of same-sex marriage		187
10	Relationships with status: civil partnership in an era of same-sex marriage	189
	ANDY HAYWARD
11	The hierarchy of marriage and civil partnerships: diversifying relationship recognition	209
	ALEXANDER MAINE

PART 5The heteronormative underpinnings of same-sex marriage 22912 Repackaged goods? Interrogating the heteronormative underpinnings of marriage 231

FERGUS RYAN

PART 6Consideration of the necessity of both social and legal change, and the interaction between them 25113 Why legal equality is not enough: the case of domestic violence and abuse in the relationships of LGBTQ+ people 253

CATHERINE DONOVAN

14 Incrementalism in same-sex marriage legalization 272

EREZ ALONI

Conclusions 292

FRANCES HAMILTON

Index 312