Projekt „Zdeněk Liška Archives“ spočívá v postupném vydávání vinylových desek s výběrem z původních nahrávek filmové hudby významného českého hudebního skladatele Zdeňka Lišky, které si sám uchovával na magnetofonových páscích.

“Zdeněk Liška Archives” is a project aimed at releasing a sequence of vinyl records featuring a selection of original recordings of film music by this important Czech composer, from his personal audio-tape archive.

Original recordings, produced by Zdeněk Liška and Jiří Zobač

Recorded at FISYO Studio (Smečky), Prague, Czechoslovakia, 29 June – 2 July, 1970 (Don Juan),
 3–4 December, 1971 (Jabberwocky), and 4–5 April, 1973 (Leonardo's Diary)

Sound engineer and recording director: Jiří Zobač

Performed by FISYO (The Film Symphony Orchestra), conducted by František Belfín (Don Juan, Jabberwocky), Prague Brass Soloists (Miroslav Kejmar, František Pémel – trumpets, Stanislav Suchánek – French horn, Ladislav Odcházel – trombone, Pavel Trnka – tuba) & Vladimír Žižka – drums, conducted by František Belfín (Leonardo's Diary)
