

CONTENTS

Unit	Main structures	Main functions
1 Languages 4	Present simple: active and passive; past simple; have to	Asking for information; polite requests – classroom language
2 Southfields College 12	Present simple vs continuous; present perfect + for; present perfect continuous + for/since	Describing people: appearance and character
3 A town in Devon 20	Defining relative clauses: who, which, where, that, whose, contact clauses	Asking for and giving suggestions and advice
4 Health and food 28	Comparatives; to – purpose; so – result; because – reason; more/less/fewer	Telling people what to do
5 Holidays 36	Will future: active and passive; will be able to; going to future; -ing future; might; indirect questions	Making plans: suggestions and preferences
6 Consolidation 44
7 Stories 52	Past perfect, + never; past continuous	Apologising
8 Your future in the stars 60	If-clauses; wish + past simple	Predicting the future with different degrees of certainty
9 Books and films 68	Past simple passive; superlatives; more comparatives	Asking for and giving opinions
10 Rules and regulations 76	(Don't) Have to; had to; should; not allowed to; can't/couldn't; mustn't	Asking/answering/giving opinions about obligations
11 Science and technology 84	Preposition + gerund; used to; adjective order	Remembering
12 Consolidation 92
13 Break-up 100	Reported speech: statements; asked + pronoun + to; should have done; wish hadn't done	Regretting past actions
14 Mysteries 108	There was/has been; can't/must be/have done; might/could have done; is supposed to be	Giving explanations (with different degrees of certainty)
15 If things had been different . . . 116	Past conditional; could have done	Thinking about the past
16 Unusual occupations 124	Gerunds as subject and object; reported questions	Reporting facts; expressing surprise
17 People 132	Verbs + infinitive/gerund; prepositional and phrasal verbs	Asking politely
18 Consolidation 140
Quiz answers 148; Pair work 149; Word list 155; Useful words 158		