

Contents

- Preface 5
- 1 The Netherlands 6
- 2 On the edge of the Roman Empire 10
- 3 Reclaiming the sand 12
- 4 Loess reclamations 14
- 5 Reclaiming the marine clay 16
- 6 Dune landscapes 20
- 7 River clay reclamations 22
- 8 Peat reclamations 24
- 9 Water infrastructure 28
- The painted landscape in the Low Countries (1400-1700) 30
- 10 Oldest towns 34
- 11 Second-generation towns 40
- 12 Younger towns 44
- 13 New towns 48
- A bike ride: Hillegom – Arnhem 52
- 14 Embankment projects 54
- 15 Drained lakes 58
- 16 Growing towns 62
- 17 Changing towns 66
- The painted town in the Low Countries (1400-1700) 72
- 18 Fortifications, warfare and water 76
- 19 Country estates 78
- 20 Peat extraction landscapes 82
- 21 New land 86
- The Dutch Republic in the eighteenth century in texts and images 88
- A bike ride: winter journey 90
- 22 National roads and canals 94
- 23 Railways 96
- 24 Industrial and residential towns 102
- 25 Urban growth 106
- 26 Urban interventions 110
- 27 Younger landscapes 116
- Towns and landscapes in Dutch art in the nineteenth century 120
- 28 The Zuiderzee Project 122
- 29 Agricultural consolidation 126
- 30 The Delta Project 128
- 31 Motorways 130
- A bike ride: Hillegom – Zutphen 132
- 32 Expanding towns and villages 134
- 33 Redevelopment and re-use 140
- 34 New landscapes 142
- Towns and landscapes in Dutch art in the twentieth century 146
- 35 A layered landscape 148
- Further reading 151
- Image credits 154
- Indices 155