Contents

Preface x
Acknowledgements xii
Introduction xiii

Chapter 1 The Nature of Morality 1

I. Forming American Morality 1

A. Three Forces Molding Public Opinion 1

B. Product: Promise of Good 2

II. Ethical Relativism and Intersubjective Agreement 3

A. Who Can Say What Is Right? 3
- Four Favorite Brands 3
- Approaching "Truth" 4

III. Thinking About Morals and Moral Thinking 5

A. Truth in Morality 5

B. Moral Thinking: A Taxonomy 6
- Consequentialism 6
- Nonconsequentialism 8
- Rule Utilitarianism 10

C. Moral Universals 12
- Sociobiology 14
- Anthropology to Moral Psychology 15

D. Getting at the Essence: Social Sympathy/Sense of Justice 17

E. Other Universal Features of Moral Life 18
- Prescriptiveness 18
- Purity of Moral Discourse 19
- Two Types of Social Knowledge 20

F. Professional Ethics of Teaching 20

Chapter 2 Social Contexts 25

I. From Igloo to Condo: The Role of the Environment in Forming Social Structures 25

A. Cultural Relativism: Society and Social Forces 25

B. Origins of Cultural Considerations 27
- Present Determinism 27
- More Than Culture 28
- The Value of Studying Other Cultures 28
- From Cultural Influence to Cultural Advance 29

II. Professional, Establishment, and Pluralistic Public Benefits and Dangers of Cultural Diversity 30

A. Schools and Culture 30
- High Culture and Establishment 31

B. Paideia Program: An Educational Syllabus 32
- Defining the American Dream 32
- Access to the Establishment 34
- Opening Doors of Opportunity 37

III. Sociopolitical Pressures and Ethical Behavior 38

A. Approaching Moral Issues 38
- Moral Courage 40
- Moral Community 40
- Apathy and Moral Challenge 41

B. Teacher Power 43

IV. The Social Psychology of Moral Development 44

A. Communal Morality 44
- Self-interest and Moral Progress 44
- The Gestalt Shift of Moral Development 44

B. Summary 46

Chapter 3 Ordering of Society: The Law and Its Effects on Education 51

I. Thomas Hobbes: Two Different Freedoms 52

A. Foes and Friends 52

B. Hobbes's Theory of Social Competition 52

C. Hobbesian Social Contract 53

D. Group Competition 55

E. Interdependency 56

F. Mutual Interdependence in the Real World:The Historical Record 56

G. The Moral of the Story 57
- Tyranny of the Masses 58
- Aristotle and the Good Guys 58

II. John Stuart Mill: Respecting Pluralism and Protecting Against the Tyranny of the Masses 59

A. Humans Require More Than Freedom from Fear 59

B. Pursuit of Happiness as an Educational Objective 59

C. Tolerance: A Condition for Happiness 60

III. The Law as Morality 61

A. What Is Law? 61

B. Right-Minded Improvements in the Law 62

C. The Law and Morality of Punishment 63
- The Real Thing 64
- Elements of Punishment 64
- The Practice of Punishment 65

D. Systematic Thinking and the Law 67
- Moral Thinking 67
- Legal Thinking 68
- Precedential Thinking 68

IV. The Law as Politics 68

A. Changing State's Attitudes 68

B. Individual Professionalism and Political Liability 70
- Community Gadfly 70
- The Issues in Pickering 71
- Trading Away Rights 71
- The Supreme Court's Answer 72
- Teacher Rights to Free Speech 73

V. Court Cases Describing Teacher and Student Rights 74

A. Understanding Further the Idea of the Law 74
• The Holders of Sovereignty 74

B. Common Sense and Order in the Schools 75
• Policing the Schools 75
• What's Left on the Schoolhouse Steps? 75
• Reasonable Expectation 76
• What Do Teachers Leave on the Schoolhouse Steps? 77

Chapter 4 Cultural Pluralism, Ethnism, and Multiculturalism Related to Education in America 82

I. The Historical Precedent for Enculturation: The American Experience 83

A. The Meaning of Culture, Ethnic Groups, and Other Terms 84

B. Early European Acculturation and Enculturation 89

C. The African-American Experience 90

D. The Native American Experience 91

E. The Hispanic Experience 93

F. The Asian Experience 94
• The Chinese 95
• The Japanese 95

G. New Immigration 95

II. The Need for Diversity and Cultural Pluralism 96

A. The Myth of the Melting Pot 97

B. Multicultural Versus Monocultural Education: Problems and Possibilities 99
• Cultural Pluralism 99

C. Consensus and the Role of the School 100
• School as Protector 102
• School as Job Finder 104
• School as Social Forum 105
• Multicultural Education and the School Models 105

III. Legal Issues Impacting Multicultural Education 106

A. De Jure and De Facto Segregation 106

B. Public Law 94-142 and Minorities 108

C. Censorship and Minority Inclusion 108

D. The Dropout: Minorities as At-Risk Students 109

• Tracking and Minorities 109

IV. A New Multiculturalism in American Education: Beyond Assimilationist or Pluralist Notions 111

Chapter 5 Teaching in a Multicultural and Multiracial Society 118

I. Misconceptions and Inconsistencies in Multicultural Teaching 119

A. The Historical Precedent 119

B. Four Curricular Inconsistencies Affecting Multicultural Education 120

• Testing 120

• Core Curriculum 124

• Minority Inclusion 125

• Bilingual/ESL Education: Problems and Promises 126

II. Theory and Practice in Multicultural Teaching 130

A. A Definition of Terms 130

B. Racism, Bias, and Discrimination in Curricula, Teaching, and Educational Institutions 131

• Textual/Curricular Racism and Bias 131

• Instructional and Institutional Bias 132

C. Addressing the Gap Between Theory and Practice in Multicultural Teaching 135

• From Social Compliance to Social Responsibility 138

• Filling the Theory-into-Practice Gap with Local Support 139

Chapter 6 Professionalism in Teaching 145

I. What Constitutes the Profession of Teaching? 146

A. A Definition of a Profession 146

B. Criteria for a Profession 147
- Sociological Descriptions of a Profession 148

C. Profession Versus Professional Performance 149
- Secondary Meanings of the Term Professional 150

D. Teaching: The Profession 151
- Precedents of Teaching in American History 151
- The Horatio Alger Myth in Educational History 152
- Teaching Is Not a Semiprofession 153
- Teaching and Limited Membership, Power, and Control 154
- Moral Accounting 154

E. Codes of Ethics—Strengths and Weaknesses 155

II. The Future of Education and the Profession 159

A. Some Trends and Prospects 159
- Social Trends 160
- Social Impacts on Education 160

B. A Need for Restructure in Education 162
- Site-Based Management 162
- Thinking Ahead 163
- Pyrrhic Victories in Education 163
- The Promise of Wisdom 164
- In Retrospect 165

Chapter 7 Theory into Practice 171

I. Cultural Studies Survey 173

II. Cultural Perception Survey 177

III. Acting Professional: Case Studies 180

IV. Professional Planning 191

Glossary of Terms Common to Moral Philosophy 196
Court Cases 198
About the Authors 200
Index 201