

Contents

Introduction	5
1. Health insurance	6
1.1 Health insurance for children-foreign nationals born in the territory of the Czech Republic	6
1.1.1. A child born to parents resident in the territory of the CR on the basis of a residence permit	6
1.1.2. A child born to parents who are staying in the CR temporarily, on the basis of a long-term visa, namely a visa for residence over 90 days	7
1.1.3. A child born to parents temporarily residing in the CR on the basis of a short-term visa (i.e. exit visa, transit visa, airport visa and visa for residence up to 90 days) or without a visa	9
1.1.4. A child born to parents-citizens of a European Union Member State residing long-term in the CR	9
1.1.5. A child born to a mother who is applying for asylum or has a residence visa for the purpose of sufferance according to asylum law	9
1.1.6. A child born to a mother who has gained asylum	9
1.2 Health insurance for children-foreign nationals residing with their parents in the Czech Republic	9
1.3 Types of health insurance	10
1.3.1. Public health insurance	10
1.3.2. Private health insurance	11
1.4 The extent of children's healthcare covered by health insurers	13
1.4.1. The extent of cover from public health insurance	13
1.4.2. The extent of cover from private health insurance	15
1.5 Possibilities for insurance for children that a private insurer refuses to insure	18
2. Organisation of the system of Czech healthcare provision	23
2.1. Introduction	23
2.2. Outpatient care	23
2.3. Institutional care	25
2.4. Accident and emergency services	26
2.5. Special paediatric facilities (nursery institutions, children's homes, crèches)	27
2.6. Pharmacy services in the CR	27
2.7. Complaints	30
3. Preventative healthcare for children and young people	33
3.1. Preventative examinations	33
3.2. Screening	35
3.3. Vaccination	35
3.3.1. Payment for vaccination	37
3.4. Child nutrition	37
3.5. Dental care	40
3.6. Injuries	41
4. Contacts for important institutions	43
5. Overview of the most important applicable legal regulations in the area of healthcare	46
6. Annex 1 Vaccination calendar of regular child vaccinations	48
7. Annex 2 – Nutrition pyramid	49