

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	1
Part I: Death in Early Modern England
Chapter 1: Facing Death	11
The Fear of Death: Pious Publications	11
Death as God's Will: Acceptance and Preparation	15
Recording Death: Rehearsing and Revising	23
Chapter 2: Early Modern Women and Death	29
Witnessing Death: the Domestic Deathbed	29
Wives, Widows and Mothers: Transition and Transformation	33
Women as Healers: Medicine and Superstition	40
Death as a Gendered Experience: Blurring the Boundaries	43
Chapter 3: The Creation of Posthumous Female Images	57
Patterns for Posterity: Selecting and Editing	57
Dying Mothers: Blessings and Instruction	59
A Public Death: Exposure and Judgement	61
Part II: Contrasting Images
Chapter 4: Women Dying Badly	69
Recording Poor Deaths: Private and Public Writings	70
Female Weakness: Physicality and Irrationality	73
Controlling Femininity: Popular Pamphlets	81
The Crime of Self-murder: Sin and Despair	88
Upholding the Patriarchy: Education and Social Cohesion	91

Chapter 5: Women Dying Well	103
Women and the Family: Wives, Mothers and Daughters	104
Women and Politics: Propaganda and Persuasion	111
Religious Propaganda: Assertion and Negation	116
The Upholding of Gender: Praise and Condemnation	121
Part III: Enduring Images: Death as an Opportunity
Chapter 6: Women and the Rituals of Death	131
Funerals: Sermons and Sanctification	131
Commemoration: Private Grief and Public Memorials	137
Execution: Assertion and Repression	141
Female Martyrs: Leadership and Idolatry	146
Chapter 7: Female Identity in Death: Wills and Posthumous Marital Status	151
Women's Wills: Expression and Conformity	151
Posthumous Marital Status: Temporal and Spiritual Husbands	166
Chapter 8: Women's Writing and Death	181
Women and Publication: Writing and Revealing	181
Female Authorship: Challenges and Solutions	183
Autobiographical Writing: Creation and Introspection	190
Mothers' Literary Legacies: Parenting and Authoring	192
Conclusion	203
Bibliography	207
Index	223