

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	xi
CHAPTER 1. The rhyme stone tale	3
CHAPTER 2. What is the skills approach?	11
Jasmin, 6-year-old girl.....	13
CHAPTER 3. How to convert challenges into skills to learn.....	19
Converting challenges into skills is easier said than done	20
A better way to handle a challenging situation	21
A skill describes desired behaviour	22
Search for exceptions to the rule	26
Identify the opposite of the problem	27
Shift focus from explanations to behaviour	28
CHAPTER 4. How to motivate children to learn skills	31
Start by talking with your child about skills that they have already learned	32
Use “we” instead of “I” messages.....	32
Find out what skill your child wants to learn	33
Discuss the benefits of learning the skill with your child	33
Join your child in learning new skills	34
Reinforce your child’s self-confidence	34
Make sure the skill is not too big	35
Ask your child to give a name to the skill.....	35
Ask your child to appoint supporters.....	35
Encourage your child to have an imaginary supporter, too	36
Plan to celebrate learning the skill	36
Help your child come up with a fun way to practise the skill	36
Discover diverse ways to praise your child.....	37
Find a way to remind your child of the skill.....	37
Offer your child an opportunity to help someone else learn the skill they have learned	38

CHAPTER 5. How to use the skills approach in day-to-day parenting.....	41
Step 1. Think of your wishes as skills for your child to learn.....	42
Step 2. Explain to your child why the skill is an important one to learn.....	42
Step 3. Build your child's confidence.....	47
Step 4. Remind your child in an agreeable manner	49
Step 5. Reinforce your child's learning	53
Praise the child verbally	54
Praise the child discreetly	54
Praise the child for trying	54
Share the child's progress with other people	55
Consult the child	55
Ask questions about the child's progress.....	56
Plan to celebrate	56
Next skill for the child to learn	58
Use certificates.....	58

CHAPTER 6. Examples: The skills approach in action	61
Selective eating, 4-year-old girl	62
Selective eating and pooping in pants, 5-year-old boy	63
Day wetting, 6-year-old boy.....	65
Refusal to use hearing aid, 7-year-old boy	66
Fear of dogs, 7-year-old boy	67
Biting nails, 7-year-old boy	69
Low self-esteem, 8-year-old girl	71
Cursing, 8-year-old boy	73
Concentration problem, 9-year-old boy.....	75
Meltdowns, 9-year-old boy	77
Sibling rivalry, 11-year-old girl	79
Concentration problem, 12-year-old boy.....	82
Interrupting, 12-year-old girl.....	84
Temper tantrum, 12-year-old girl.....	86
Gaming addiction, 14-year-old boy.....	89

CHAPTER 7. Children's challenges from A to Z.....	93
Attention deficit disorder	94
Bipolar disorder	95

Biting	97
Bullying	98
Your child bullies other children	98
Other children bully your child	99
Concentration	101
Confabulation	103
Cursing	104
Defiance	105
Depression	108
Divorce	109
Fears	111
Finger sucking	112
Hair pulling	114
Happiness	115
Homework	117
Interrupting	119
Low self-esteem	120
Nail biting	121
Nightmares	122
Obedience	123
OCD	124
Overweight	129
Perfectionism	130
Picky eating	131
Playing with fire	132
Punishing	133
Screen time	134
Selective mutism	136
Self-stimulation	137
Separation anxiety	138
Shouting	139
Shyness	139
Sibling rivalry	140
Sleeping	142
Your child sleeps in your bed	142
Child crawls into your bed at night	143
Soiling	144
Tantrums	146

Tics	149
Traumatic experiences	151
Unhealthy diet	152
Violence	153
Wetting.....	155
Daytime wetting.....	155
Bedwetting.....	157
CHAPTER 8. Things to keep in mind.....	161
Establish a connection with the child first.....	162
Make sure the child wants to learn the skill.....	162
Make sure the skill is not stopping undesired behaviour.....	164
Make sure the skill is something that the child can do or say.....	164
Make sure there is an agreement about reminding	165
Be prepared for challenges	165
CHAPTER 9. Skills approach in schools	167
Collaboration with students	168
Collaboration with parents	171
Working with the whole class	172
Afterword.....	177
Links and resources.....	178
Index	181