Contents

| | Acknowledgements | page vi |
|---|---|---------|
| | Introduction: The problem of distributive justice in the EU | 1 |
| 1 | Two distributive duties | 27 |
| 2 | Democratic redistribution in the EU | 60 |
| 3 | Economic reciprocity in the EU | 86 |
| 4 | A moderate feasibility test for normative theory | 119 |
| 5 | Realizing distributive justice in the EU | 144 |
| | Conclusion: Towards a just Europe | 163 |
| | Bibliography | 168 |
| | Index | 183 |

nes addices and Do recall hier member states have the mosal dance an appet distressed member states? What if ancured and sit incurs it is a result of perce police chalces? Is there are minimized beet of assistance that should becregarded as receivages for hit education What ignice instruments would

What conditions evould these be feasible? In short, what duries of some are to an interest to be bette plants the sent from the letter to the terminate. I determine the annumber of familian objections manual distributive justice at the EU level, edia to little chair dense of them is strome chough to prevent a main a dispetent