

Foreword	11
Introduction	13
Part 1 Biography	15
1 Robert Craig Andrew Miller and Loudon Craig	17
Part 2 The book in Scotland	25
2 A reader's salute to libraries Janey Buchan	27
3 Literature, nation Jenny Brown	36
4 Bookselling and publishing in Scotland Lorraine Fannin	43
Part 3 Information policy, technology and practice	53
5 National information policy: realities and prospects Ian R. M. Mowat	55
6 Developments in IT, networks and services Derek Law	65
7 Boxes and wires: IT, SLIC and information delivery Elaine Fulton	77
8 Future librarians: professionals for an information society Judith Elkin	89
Part 4 Policy, advocacy and professional bodies	103
9 A wider role for professional bodies George Cunningham	105
10 The SLA and SLIC: change, achievement and opportunity Gavin Drummond	112
11 The LA and the SLA: a professional partnership Bob McKee	124

12	Serving the SLA's membership Rhona Arthur	135
13	International liaison, advocacy and policy transfer Ross Shimmon	146
Part 5	Scottish library and information service developments	157
14	Public libraries Alan R.C. Hasson	159
15	Libraries and information services in schools Liz Knowles	170
16	Libraries and information services in further and higher education Stuart James	181
17	Libraries and information services in healthcare Graham Buckley and Mary Lakie	197
	Contributors and editors	213